Rise In Radiation Alarms Los Angeles

City's Mayor Protests To Washington

Demands Tests Be Halted; AEC Insists There's No Danger

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A sharp increase in radioactivity over Southern California Thursday set off a wave of indignation and apprehension.

Mayor Norris Poulson telephoned a protest to Washington. He demanded that the all but completed atomic weapons tests in Nevada be halted immediately.

The City Health Department said the amount of radioactivity in the air rose 20 per cent above the accepted safe level for human consumption over a period of months.

The Atomic Energy Commission which has been busy rushing completion of weapons tests in Nevada, insisted there was no danger.

Reports of the spurt in radioactivity created excitement in Los Angeles. Newspaper and official switchboards received hundreds of calls inquiring of possible danger.

Banner Headlines

Workers in civic office buildings closed windows.

"Fallout perils L.A.," headlined the Herald Express. "Atom fall-out rise here sets off panic," said the Mirror News banner.

The AEC insisted it is a temporary situation and that the radioactivity will dissipate quickly. A spokesman said the amount is equal only to the exposure a person would get under normal circumstances over two months.

But Mayor Poulson was alarmed because wind was carrying fallout from Nevada tests over his city.

He talked by telephone with Atomic Energy Commissioner W. F. Libby. Poulson said he was told the last scheduled shot in Nevada would be called off.

But AEC scientists went ahead with plans to fire another shot Thursday night if weather conditions permit.

Scientists Disagree

Informed of this, Poulson said: "We don't like to be talked to like children. If they shoot that last shot there will be repercussions."

In Washington, Libby said: "There was some fallout (in Los Angeles) but it is not hazardous. There was difference of opinion among scientists on the situation."

Dr. Albert W. Bellamy, University of California at Los Angeles biologist, advised: "Don't press the panic button."

He said a person would have to be exposed to 10 times the amount measured for several months to have his health impaired.

Dr. Paul Saltman, University of Southern California professor of biochemistry, said:

"Radiation exposure is a cumulative thing. What happens today we always have with us. True, the maximum permissible level is a continuous level. But radiation that is begun today stays — almost forever."

Bomb Blasts Kill Nine In Algeria

ORAN, Algeria (UPI)—Nine persons were killed and 26 others wounded when two time bombs secreted in an automobile parked on a downtown street in the town of Tiarret exploded Thursday. It was the worst act of terrorism in revolt-torn Algeria this year.

Tiarret is a town of some 25,000 about 100 miles southeast of Oran. Reports reaching here said the dead included three Europeans and six Moslems, one of them a woman.

The reports said the bombs were devised from 105-millimeter artillery shells. The bombs were hidden in a European-made sedan.

Radiation Fallout Worries Mayor

Mayor Norris Poulson (right) of Los Angeles confers with Jack C. Rogers, director of occupational health of the city's health department, over higher than normal radiation fallout readings as the probable result of atomic tests in Nevada. Rogers said the radiation level reached 2,000 micro-microcuries, which he said is twice the maximum safe level. Poulson telephoned the White House, talked to Atomic Energy Commissioner W. F. Libby, and then announced a final atomic test had been halted as a result. However, the AEC in Las Vegas denied this. (AP Photofax)

Pope May Visit France; Would Break Tradition

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A high ranking churchman said Thursday Pope John XXIII is considering a visit to France this year. If he does, the new Pope will shatter a centuries-old tradition.

No reigning Pope in 100 years has journeyed outside Italy. Since 1870 no pope has gone more than a dozen or so miles from Rome and Vatican City. It has been hundreds of years since a pontiff has traveled willingly as far away as France.

The 76-year-old pontiff also is thinking of visiting Venice, where he served as Patriarch before his election as Pope Tuesday by a conclave of cardinals.

Mgr. Giuseppe Olivetti, auxiliary Bishop of Venice, quoted Pope John as saying:

"You know that I have a hope—of seeing Venice again. If it will be possible, I would like to conclude the Marian Year at Lourdes and on that occasion, or another, I would like to pay a visit to my Venice. But these things alive in my soul, things which will require reflection for their achievement."

The Marian Year—dedicated to the Virgin Mary—began in February at Lourdes, France, scene of the famous shrine whose 100th anniversary now is being marked.

The new Pope, when he was Angelo Giuseppe Cardinal Roncalli, visited Lourdes in March as head of a Vatican delegation to dedicate an underground basilica. A special jet plane was sent from France to take him from Venice to Lourdes.

All last summer there had been speculation, chiefly in France, that Pope Pius XII would journey to Lourdes for the centenary celebration of St. Bernadette, the little French girl to whom the Virgin is said to have appeared in a vision. Lourdes is world famous as a shrine.

Eaton Suggests Exchange Visits By Ike, Khrushchev

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Industrialist Cyrus Eaton proposed Thursday that President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev exchange visits in the interest of world peace.

The Cleveland, Ohio, industrial leader told a National Press Club luncheon that such visits between the two heads of government would lessen the danger of a nuclear war which "would destroy us all."

Eaton, who recently returned from a visit to Russia, said Khrushchev expressed a great desire to see the United States. The Soviet premier also promised Eisenhower a warm welcome if he visited Moscow, Eaton said.

The controversial industrialist predicted that "an enormous contribution to the future peace of the world" would result if Khrushchev could see first-hand the wonders of U. S. industry and agriculture.

Report Bombs Planted In Nixon Hotel Checked

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Police checked quickly Thursday an anonymous telephone call that three bombs had been planted at the main business district hotel where Vice President Richard Nixon was scheduled for an overnight stay.

At the time the anonymous call was received at police headquarters, less than three blocks from the hotel, the Nixon auto caravan was en route to the hotel from the Municipal Airport where his plane landed shortly after 4 p.m.

Officers went to the hotel, where management representatives said they had heard nothing of such a call.

A captain at headquarters who refused to be quoted by name indicated the call was considered a hoax, but being checked out.

Chinese Ease Bombardment

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—The Chinese Communists eased their bombardment of the Quemoy off-shore islands Thursday while the United States turned over to the Nationalist forces on Formosa a shipment of M41 tanks.

A Defense Ministry communiqué said Red shore guns fired their lowest bombardment in four days against the Nationalist-held Quemoy. A Nationalist spokesman said the Communist artillery became silent at 6 p.m. after firing only 385 shells.

This was one of the even numbered days on which the Communists pledged they would refrain from shelling the Quemoy beaches, airstrips and wharves in their alternate-day plan for bombarding Nationalist supply installations.

Jet Engine Breaks Loose During Test

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—A Deimon jet engine on a test block broke loose at the Boca Chica Naval Air Station Thursday night, starting a fire and causing damage estimated at $50,000.

Four sailors were injured slightly but after treatment returned to help bring the fire under control.

The jet engine, under 15,000 pounds thrust, broke loose and hit the crash shack, which houses fire fighting equipment at the station eight miles east of Key West.

"Radicalism" Charge Hurdled Back At GOP

By The Associated Press

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) threw the Republicans' charge of political radicalism right back at them Thursday night.

Vice President Richard Nixon proclaimed meanwhile that the GOP's election chances are the best in years. The Democrats are "stumbling toward the finish line," he said.

These leading partisans in the campaign culminated in next Tuesday's elections spoke out anew while President Eisenhower prepared to deliver a nationwide TV-radio speech from Baltimore Friday night.

The big question is whether Eisenhower will have a Democratic or Republican Congress to work with in the last two years of his term.

Sen. Johnson, the No. 1 Democrat in the Senate, discussed the radicalism charge in a speech prepared for a Democratic dinner in Indianapolis.

"If the Democratic party is guilty of 'political radicalism,'" Johnson said, "then President Eisenhower and his administration have acquiesced in 'political radicalism' for six years during two of which there were Republican majorities in Congress."

Johnson said Eisenhower has not asked for the repeal of any law passed under Democratic auspices in the 20 years preceding his inauguration.

Vice President Nixon was campaigning again through the Middle West, at Fort Dodge, Iowa, in the afternoon and Wichita, Kan., Thursday night.

Pitching his arguments to the farmers, Nixon said at Fort Dodge: "All the campaign oratory in the world cannot obscure the fact that in the 20 years of the New Deal and the Fair Deal, there was never prosperity on the farm except in war or as a result of war."

But now, he said, there has been a record gross farm income of $13,800,000,000 in the first half of 1958, and inflation in farmers' costs has been halted.

At Wichita, Nixon bore down on the theme that the Democrats have run out of gas and "have nothing left but hot air."

Underground Atomic Blast Rends Desert

Test Shot Sends Column Of Debris 1,000 Feet In Air

ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The United States ended its fall nuclear test series Thursday with a record underground blast that ripped a huge hole in the side of a mesa.

The climax left scientists weary from days of round the clock effort to finish the series by the deadline time Thursday.

Midnight Thursday local time was the deadline proposed by President Eisenhower for a ban on such tests. But a few hours before the deadline the Soviet Union rejected the proposal.

Debris Soars 1,000 Feet

Later, in a clarifying statement, the State Department announced that despite the Soviet rejection the United States plans to go ahead with a one-year ban beginning Friday unless Russia carries out another nuclear test.

The climactic shot came at 7 a.m. when the calm of a desert sunrise was rent by a tremendous explosion that sent a 500-foot-wide column of debris soaring 1,000 feet over a mesa.

It came from a device fired in a chamber at the end of a tunnel 2,600 feet into the side of a mesa. The result was equal to 20,000 tons of TNT, believe the military school teachers, called Thursday for a special session of the General Assembly to save the Virginia public school system in the integration crisis.

Shock Like Earthquake

Newsmen 4 1/2 miles away first felt a jolting earthquake-like shock, then saw the great fountain of rock and sand rise majestically heavenward from a point on the mesa's slope directly above the blast chamber.

Great rocks along the mesa's rim were dislodged and thundered downward. A jet pilot flying overhead said the entire mesa shook, then was dimmed by rising dust.

A final shot, scheduled for firing from a balloon tethered at 1,500 feet, was delayed by high winds. Whether it would be fired at all was doubtful.

Explosion Kills 4 At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—Four persons were killed and nine injured Thursday in an explosion and flash fire that sent poisonous fumes through an East Side factory.

Twenty-five firemen and two policemen who inhaled the fumes during rescue operations at the plant of Erico Products, Inc., were taken to hospitals for oxygen treatment.

The dead were identified as William Ramsey, 66, a research worker; Melvin Redjak, 35, chemist; Ronald E. Turner, 29, laboratory technician, and Nate Handle, 42, a laborer who had been employed at the plant only three days.

Cause of the explosion was not determined immediately. It occurred on the first floor of the three-story brick building where 15 persons were employed in research and mixing operations.

Fire Chief Elmer Cain estimated the damage at $50,000, but E. B. Neff, president of the firm, said the figure may reach $100,000.

The toxic fumes were generated by copper oxide powder which workers were putting into small plastic capsules for use in electrical signaling devices.

Ike Calls Off Plans For Farm Weekend

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower Thursday called off plans to spend this week end in Gettysburg, Pa., but will go there Tuesday to vote.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the switch resulted from a change in personal plans of the Eisenhower family. He said there was no indication of political activity beyond Friday night.

The President will make his final campaign speech at 9 p.m. e.s.t. Friday over a nationwide radio-television network from Baltimore.

Eisenhower originally planned to travel to Baltimore Friday by train and then motor to his Gettysburg farm after the speech. Instead, he will return here by train.

Teachers Urge Special Session Of Va. Assembly

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—The Virginia Education Association, representing 25,000 white public school teachers, called Thursday for a special session of the General Assembly to save the Virginia public school system in the integration crisis.

Gov. J. Lindsay Almond, to whom the VEA's appeal was addressed, went before the teachers' group a few hours later and called for patience and understanding in the crisis which has closed nine Virginia schools.

Almond, in a speech prepared for a Thursday night session of the VEA convention, said he could not predict the future, but added that "The question becomes one of surrender or continued exercise of every legal and honorable means at our command to resist" integration.

His text made no mention of a special session.

The VEA convention, attended by some 1,800 persons, overwhelmingly adopted resolutions stating its grave concern over the closing of schools to avoid integration. It urged Almond to call the Legislature into special session at "an early date" to enact laws that "would keep the state in the public school business."

The vote came after the convention defeated substitute resolutions that would, in effect, have given strong support to the state's anti-integration program.

A delegation from Norfolk, where six schools have been closed to prevent integration, led the fight for adoption of the resolutions as presented by the VEA's Resolutions Committee and approved by the organization's 20 member board of directors.

Police relented and gave the pet back to Spurlock for the night. But jail rules bar pets and the squirrel was sent to the dog pound Thursday.

Spurlock said he would ask a friend to bail out the animal and care for it pending outcome of the bad check case.

Cop, Wife Win Custody Of Girl Thief He Arrested

ROSEVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Police Sgt. Harry Fuhrman worked three months to solve a series of home burglaries, then obtained permission to take custody of the admitted burglar, a 17-year-old girl.

The sergeant arrested the girl, mother of a 7-month-old boy, in her apartment Monday. He saw that the only food in the apartment was one potato and half a bottle of milk. The unnamed girl said her estranged husband, a part-time service station attendant, gave her only $2 a week and she turned to burglary to feed herself and the child.

Fuhrman took the two to a juvenile hall, then talked to his wife, Melba, and Police Chief Francis

Rescue Spurs Hopes Others May Be Alive

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP)—Twelve sturdy miners emerged from a wrecked coal mine Thursday with a story of hunger, thirst, prayer, and despair during six black days of entombment.

"I just lay there and I prayed," said one miner of the days of darkness deep in the mine.

Then when the click of a rescue crewman's pick Wednesday told them deliverance was near, "I hollered," said another.

The 12, rescued at dawn, said they had left dead comrades behind them in their tunnel. But rescue workers dug on, hoping for another near-miracle and that some of the 55 still missing might be alive.

The ordeal for the 12 began Thursday night when a massive shift of the earth—caused by pressures deep in the mine—trapped 174 men, killing at least 26.

The known death toll rose Thursday night to 31, however. One more body was brought up. Rescue workers said they had sighted four more.

50 Unaccounted For

That reduced to 50 the men to be accounted for. Frank Doxey, assistant to rescue director Harold Gordon, said the answer to their fate was at the end of about 420 feet more of the kind of digging, scrambling and clawing that accomplished the rescue of the 12 who were brought out alive early Thursday.

Each of the 12 had lost about 10 pounds, but doctors said they were in surprisingly good condition.

Hugh Guthro, 31, said the upheaval of rock and coal—miners call it a bump—had caught his group two miles from the entrance of Cumberland Mine No. 2 and more than 4,000 feet below the surface.

Heard Cries Of Dying

There was dust, darkness, and confusion. Buried up to his chest, Guthro could hear the cries of the dying.

"The floor came up and the ceiling came down," Wilfred Hunter said. "I was hurled about 15 feet along with more falling coal and rock and timber and iron than I ever saw before."

He said his boss and his buddy were only two steps behind him. Both were killed.

"We had a couple of lamps operating for a day or so, and I crawled around to look," Hunter said. (Continued on Page 9, Col. 8)

Prisoner Weeps When Cops Take His Pet Squirrel

DETROIT (AP)—A prisoner and his pet squirrel were behind bars in separate jails Thursday after police permitted the squirrel to stay overnight with its master.

Charlie Spurlock, 28, jailed on a charge of passing bad checks, broke down and wept Wednesday when officers took away the lame squirrel that rode in Charlie's pocket.

Police relented and gave the pet back to Spurlock for the night. But jail rules bar pets and the squirrel was sent to the dog pound Thursday.

U.S. To Stop For Year If Reds Desist

Russia Demands Permanent Ban Or None At All

GENEVA (AP)—The Soviet Union Thursday night rejected Western proposals to ban nuclear weapons testing for one year. It was an unpromising prelude to the American-British-Soviet talks opening here Friday on possibilities of a permanent nuclear cease-fire.

But the United States countered in Washington with an announcement that unless the Russians carry out another nuclear weapons test, the United States will maintain its own ban for one year beginning Friday.

Both Britain and the United States said the talks with the Russians will go on whether the Russians test nuclear weapons or not.

Western sources here said the British also will go along on the U.S. test ban policy: No British blasts for a year if the Russians desist.

But the Soviet notes to the United States and Britain rejecting the one-year ban were backed up by two other Soviet pronouncements.

Tests Continue, Reds Say

In Moscow, the Tass News Agency and Moscow radio reiterated that the Russians will continue testing until their test total matches that of the United States and Britain combined.

At the U.N. in New York, the Soviet delegation sounded the doom of a small nation compromise move promoted by India and Yugoslavia.

The Russians said they would vote for a proposed no-limit discontinuance of tests with a control system if Britain and the United States would join in a pledge to stop tests for all time no matter how the talks here result. The condition was rejected by Britain and the United States.

The delegations of the three atom powers are here and it appeared the Russians had dropped their demands of a month ago that the conference should be raised to foreign minister's level.

Lincoln White, the U.S. State Department spokesman in Washington, said the Soviet notes rejecting the U.S.-British proposals for the one-year ban indicated they are not insisting on the presence of foreign ministers at the meeting.

Soviet Inconsistencies

In the face of the Soviet note's insistence that tests be banned for all time, White remarked that the United States and Britain had moved in their one-year proposal toward the Soviet proposal in 1957 for a two or three year ban.

White said Soviet claims that a one-year ban would give the West a military advantage provided curious inconsistencies when carried alongside a statement in the note that it is absurd to say the Western powers have nuclear research superiority.

The delegations here held a housekeeping meeting with U. N. officials to arrange for translations and similar U. N. services.

But at the U.N. in New York, three weeks of debate in an effort to give the conferees some U. N. guidance came to nothing. The United States agreed conditionally to support an Indian resolution recommending immediate discontinuance of nuclear tests without any restriction on their resumption.

Israel Denies Cairo Mobilization Charge

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Israel Thursday night emphatically denied Cairo's allegations that it is preparing for war.

A Foreign Ministry spokesman declared: "There is not the slightest foundation for rumors put out from Cairo and elsewhere about mobilization or other warlike preparations in Israel. The whole story is an invention as everybody can see for himself."

The Cairo press charged Israel had begun mobilizing in the past 48 hours near the Jordan-Israeli demarcation line. The newspapers asserted the aim was to threaten Jordanians if they made any attempt against King Hussein.

W.Va. Mine Blast Claims 14th Victim

RICHWOOD, W. Va. (UPI)—The explosion in the Burton mine of the Ogleby-Norton Coal Co. Tuesday claimed its 14th victim Thursday.

Authorities at the Sacred Heart Hospital here said Paul Davis, 43, died at 5:20 p. m. He and three other men had been carried from the pit alive several hours after the explosion occurred.

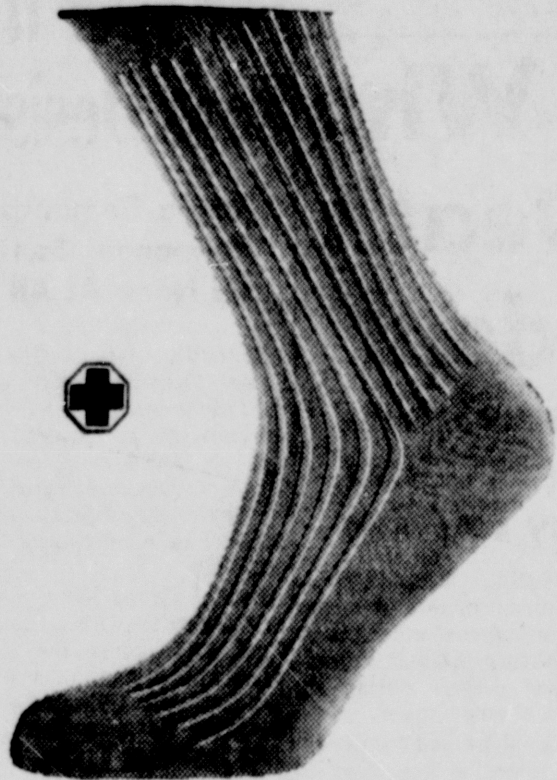

3 Americans Share Nobel Medical Prize

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Prize for this year. The only other Nobel Prize remaining to be awarded, for peace, will be announced later.

In awarding half of the medical prize to Lederberg the committee said it was "for his discoveries concerning genetic recombination and the organization of the genetic material of bacteria."

The term genetic recombination means sexual life in the world of bacteria. Lederberg discovered that from the geneticists' viewpoint "this corresponded exactly to the normal sexual fertilization in the higher organisms."

Subway Riders Mite Miffed By "No Stop" Ride

LONDON (AP)—A London subway train roared happily along the Piccadilly Line Thursday, past station after station—with 70 excited passengers beating frantically at the locked doors.

The train driver didn't know they were there. He was just taking the train back to the yard for repairs.

The excited passengers tried to attract attention but the train sped through six stations and no one noticed.

Back at the suburban station known as Arsenal the train had developed a slight mechanical fault, and the conductor had given the "all change" order. A crowd poured out all down the long line of cars, then the doors snapped shut and the train roared off. But 70 were in forward cars far from the conductor and didn't hear the call.

Finally one passenger broke in to the communications tube which links the rear conductor's compartment to the driver in front of the train. His shouts to the surprised driver brought the train to a halt at the Covent Garden Station. Then "all changed," a mite miffed.

State Jobs Picture Continues Improving

BALTIMORE (AP)—Maryland's jobs picture keeps improving. Employment was up again in September for the seventh straight month and unemployment dropped for the fourth straight month.

But the Department of Employment Security noted that total employment in the state was still 16,000 below the figure for September, 1957. And the number of jobless continued at levels twice as high as last year at the same time.

Refrigerator Safety Law Geos Into Effect

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A new federal law went into effect Thursday designed to save the lives of small children who accidentally become trapped in refrigerators.

Government officials estimate that more than a dozen children a year on the average are trapped in refrigerators and ice boxes and suffocate.

Congress passed the new law in 1956 and directed the administration to draw up specific requirements. Many manufacturers have been installing required safety features for sometime.

Under the law, refrigerator doors must be built so they will open when:

—Not more than 15 pounds of pressure is applied from the inside where the handle is located.

—Or, an inside knob requiring not more than five pounds of pressure is turned.

—Or, some automatic device requiring not more than 15 pounds of pressure operates.

Three To Represent Ike At Coronation

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower Thursday designated three Americans to represent him personally at Tuesday's coronation of Pope John XXIII.

The President chose Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell; Robert D. Murphy, deputy under-secretary of state, and Mrs. Claire Boothe Luce, former U.S. ambassador to Italy.

Beall's "Apathy" In Bainbridge Curtailment Hit By D'Alesandro

BALTIMORE (AP) — Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro declared Thursday the curtailment of Navy activities at its Bainbridge, Md., base had brought "economic ruin to half the population of Cecil County."

He called this "one of the most tragic examples of my Republican opponent's weak and ineffective representation of the State of Maryland" in the United States Senate.

The Democratic mayor referred to Republican Sen. J. Glenn Beall, whom he opposes for re-election in next Tuesday's balloting.

He said Beall's reaction to curtailment of the Bainbridge recruiting operation was typified by his payment of "a call on his old friend, (Presidential Assistant) Sherman Adams, then the autocrat of the White House, and after he reported back to the people of Cecil County that the White House was 'sympathetic.'"

Then came further curtailment by transferring the Bainbridge boot training program to the Great Lakes and San Diego naval bases, said D'Alesandro.

One result of this, he said, was that Cecil County was "stuck with a brand new million-dollar public school" built primarily for children of navy personnel.

Other effects he mentioned were the loss of a 125-million dollar "overall payroll" connected with Bainbridge and the loss of business brought to the area by more than a million out-of-state visitors who had come to area annually to visit the recruits.

"At the stroke of a dictatorial pen in Washington," said D'Alesandro, "all this was swept away."

The Democratic candidate noted that a Norfolk, Va., newspaper recently printed a report that re-

Italian Mountain Village Still Stunned By Native Son's Election As Pope

EDITORS NOTE: Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli began life in a sharecropper's humble cottage in a little North Italian mountain village. His subsequent long diplomatic and pastoral career reached a climax as he neared 77 with his election as supreme pontiff and spiritual leader of the world's half billion Roman Catholics. Following is the first of a three-part series on the life of Pope John XXIII.

SOTTO IL MONTE, Italy (UPI)—For this remote mountain village, life, somehow, will never be the same now that one of its native sons has been elected supreme pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church.

The bonfires of celebration had died out and the tourists from Milan and Bergamo had gone home, but there was no dampening of the jubilation felt by the handful of residents of Sotto il Monte.

"This is an awfully staggering thing for us," a 30-year-old woman said in perhaps the most important call ever made on the town's single public telephone. "We can hardly believe it has happened."

The woman was Enrica Roncalli, niece of Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli who Tuesday became Pope John XXIII. She was speaking to the Vatican, relaying the town's joy and prayers to her uncle.

Town Gives Thanks
Tuesday night, there was much rejoicing and cheering here. For Pope John knows virtually every one of the 1,773 villagers by name. Led by the parish priest, Pietro Bosio, they rushed to the town's center. Many knelt to pray on the cobblestones. The Pope's three brothers still living here went to the parish church to pray.

Near the church, at the top of a narrow cobblestone street stands a house of square-cut stones, covered with grapevines. From the window of this house, a boy, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli, long ago gazed on the green valley below the hillside sloping down to where the River Adda flows.

His family had lived for five centuries in the stone house, located among a cluster of farmhouses linked by paths, a place of legends and memories of ancient times. An old belltower and the chapel stand at the end of the poplar-lined road.

The boy Angelo was born in his farm family's stone house on Nov. 25, 1881, here in Sotto il Monte, which in Italian means "under the mountain." It is near Bergamo, 40 miles east of Milan. His father was a sharecropper for Count Ottavio Mogliani. He was a hard-working man who reared 13 children and managed to save money to buy himself a small field of his own. He had counted on Angelo Giuseppe, his third child and eldest son, to help him in the fields.

Wanted To Be Priest
At the age of 11, Angelo had other ideas. He told his father he wanted to become a priest. The father agreed. In time, the boy who had slept on an iron cot in the stone house became a cardinal of the church. But he spent his summers and holidays here, in the family home.

And so it was that when Angelo last left the stone house, and the village, early this month he traveled to Rome for the funeral of Pope Pius XII—and the conclave that Tuesday elected him the new pope.

And according to Vatican sources in Rome, the name that he took for himself as supreme pontiff, "Giovanni," or John, was chosen to honor his father, whose first name was John—the father who had not objected to his leaving the fields to dedicate his life to God.

Angelo's church career was gradual and unsensational. He studied at the Bergamo Seminary from 1892 to 1900, was graduated in theology in 1904 from the Apollinare Seminary in Rome and was ordained a priest that year. He said his first Mass in St. Peter's Basilica.

There followed nine formative years. From 1905 to 1914, he served as personal secretary of Msgr. Giacomo Count Radini-Tedeschi, bishop of Bergamo. As right-hand to the dynamic bishop, Father Roncalli started what at the time were regarded as daring innovations, such as publishing parish news bulletins. He also became acquainted with some of Italy's leading prelates.

Goes To Venice
Three days after Roncalli was made a cardinal, Pius XII appointed him patriarch of Venice to replace Msgr. Carlo Agostini, who had died only a few days before the start of the 1953 conclave.

When he was named patriarch of Venice, he smiled radiantly and said: "Here I have a new chance—to be entirely a pastor. I am convinced that the ministry of the pastor is the most fascinating, the finest that a man can be offered in his life."

He likes to meet people, and does so with simplicity and joy.

He is a learned historian, an art lover, a skilled linguist. His motto as cardinal was "obedientia et pax"—obedience and peace

But the "cell" or little apartment in the conclave which finally elected him pope, had a different motto.

A plaque on the wall of the living room, in what usually is the quarters of the papal noble guards, read: "Il comandante"—the commander.

In many primitive societies, women do most of the work while the men occupy themselves with such items as war, politics and religion.

Valley Road Club Plans Display

Valley Road Homemakers Club will have its Achievement Day program November 5. The meeting is to be held at Central YMCA, beginning at 11 a.m.

Members are asked to bring any article they made during the year, to display. They may include clothing, rugs, aprons or canned goods.

A Friendship Hour will be held from 12 until 1 o'clock, with the nutrition chairman demonstrating and serving sandwiches and coffee. Cookies and candy will be for sale.

Mrs. Irene MacDonald will preside at the business session at 1:15. At that time Miss Mary Wise will give a demonstration on planning home laundry. Roll call will be answered with "How Wash Day Changed for Me."

Class Entertains Families At Party

The Companion Class of LaVale Baptist Church held a Halloween party in the church social room recently. The room was appropriately decorated in keeping with the season. Games featured the entertainment for the evening. Mrs. Virginia Whitesides and Mrs. Lucille Hestettler were hostesses.

Others attending were William McKee, James, Ellen and Beth McKee; Randall Hestettler, Linda, Rhea, Jeff and Nina Hestettler; Mr. and Mrs. Meade Stahle, Sue Ellen and Lois Stahle; Arthur Vickers, George Vickers, Lester Whitesides, Linda, Sharon and Kathy Sue Whitesides; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Beckman, Rita Ann Beckman, Mrs. James Davis, James Davis Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Harman, Virginia and Douglas Harman.

The class will hold its annual Thanksgiving dinner for members and their families at the November meeting. The committee for the dinner is composed of Miss Virginia Harman, Miss Bernice Beckman and Mrs. Stahle.

To Honor Officers

"Peace in the South West" will be presented by McKinley Chapter 12, O.E.S. in honor of Mrs. Mildred Hite, warder, and Robert F. Rizer, sentinel.

The usual chapter meeting will be held, after which refreshments will be served by Mrs. Mary Paulman and her committee.

Jaycees To Entertain At Masquerade Dance

A Halloween dance will be held by the Cumberland Jaycees tonight at the Ali Ghan Country Club. Costumes are optional, but the committee prefers that everyone come in fancy dress.

Prizes for costumes include the funniest and most original in the couples group; the funniest, most original and prettiest in the individual group. A special award will be "the largest and most expensive ever given by the Jaycees."

Dancing will be from 9:30 until 12:30, with music by Harold Win-stanley Orchestra. The decorations will carry out the Halloween motif, with jack-o-lanterns encircled with corn, centering every table. Corn shocks, witches, cats and skeletons are being used throughout the room.

Bruce Anderson is chairman of arrangements. His committee consists of Ray Lapp, Fred Hill, Lee Emerick, Richard Sell and Casper Taylor Jr.

Stable, Peaceful World Would Not Fit Expansionist Objectives Of Communism

By J. M. ROBERTS

Associated Press News Analyst

In his first message to the world the new Pope has asked why the resources devoted to arms should not be used to "increase the well-being of all citizens, especially of the needy?"

The difficulties in the way, he said, must be overcome "even if by force." Strong words for an apostle of peace.

Oddly enough, his question had been answered by John Foster Dulles only a matter of hours before it is uttered.

The Soviet Union, said Dulles, vetoed in the United Nations a U.S.-Canadian proposal for international inspection of the Arctic to avoid its use as a pathway for surprise attack.

"The Soviet Union can scarcely blame us if we conclude that it has aggressive dispositions in this area which it desires to conceal. . . . We have no choice but to continue to cooperate to build deterrent and defensive forces." He referred to a single area, but in terms which apply to the whole world. Long ago President Eisenhower suggested before the United Nations that all countries renounce war and devote the savings to world economic and social development.

But that is not the desire of the Soviet Union. An economically stable world would not be one in which communism or any other quick cure-all could be used as a net in which to capture the spirit of free men.

Nor would it fit the expansionist aims of international communism, which specifically hopes by its threats of violence to force other nations to waste their resources on arms, thus spending their way into economic chaos upon which the Reds hope to capitalize.

There are a great many people who believe that this undercutting campaign never will be stopped without the use of force which the Pope envisions as a possibility. Whether that force be applied from within or without. The material need of the world for a cease-fire in the cold war seems to pale for a moment, however, before the pathetic spectacle of one sensitive human being, standing before all the others in shame.

"Because of the meaning of this award in the society I live in," Boris Pasternak is turning his back on Nobel prize for literature. Before the pressure was put he had said he was "immensely thankful, touched, proud, astonished, abashed."

But he put some of the thoughts of free men into the minds of characters in a novel. In order to preserve for himself and other Russian writers a bare minimum of expression, he must refuse an award from a committee which is jubilantly welcomed when it recognizes Russian scientists.

There is horror in this picture of creative man standing naked before political force.

It is a reason aside from economics why free men might dare to face the cloud that is shaped like a mushroom.

The newspaper Kurier Polski said the line reported a large deficit on its internal flights last year, although its foreign operations to 12 countries made a substantial profit. Lot officials in the English Channel and blamed the decrease in passengers on a big boost in fares.

Legal Question Arises Over New Parking Laws

One provision of the new parking regulations which will go into effect November 15 resulted in considerable argument in legal and quasi-legal circles yesterday. The discussions were brought about by one of the provisions which City Attorney William R. Carascaden brought to the attention of Magistrates Morris Baron and J. Milton Dick which state that the police magistrate shall have the power to suspend sentence or costs, or both, in any case within his jurisdiction. However, Carascaden points out that the ruling applies only to state motor vehicle charges, adding that a provision in the code which stipulates that in certain cases, overweight of vehicles, the magistrate is forbidden to suspend and the police magistrate shall have the power to suspend or reduce the fine provided for violations, as provided in the ordinance. It was brought out that the Maryland Motor Vehicle Code specifically states that the magisistrate shall have the power to suspend sentence or costs, or both, in any case within his jurisdiction. However, Carascaden points out that the ruling applies only to state motor vehicle charges, adding that a provision in the code which stipulates that in certain cases, overweight of vehicles, the magistrate is forbidden to suspend and the police magistrate shall have the power to suspend or reduce the fine provided for violations, as provided in the ordinance. When taking dictation have a second notebook and extra pencils.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

A Good Secretary

Promptness spells success in relations between a secretary and her employer. When the hours are from 9 to 4, work is to begin at 9 — not 15 or 20 minutes later, after personal grooming. This is especially true in a large office, where it is important to set good example for other employees. Also, in any office where there is personal contact with the public.

The smart secretary should always appear in proper office attire. That means she is always well groomed and dressed to look like a secretary . . . in appropriate business costume. Loud, flashy colors and unharmonious combinations contribute to bad taste.

She maintains a well-arranged, neat desk. She learns early in her career that work is performed more easily and more professionally when the desk is kept well. It reflects a well-ordered mind.

Proper posture while taking dictation is most important. It gives the secretary a more attractive appearance and makes her work less tiring. For complete details send for our booklet, "Your Posture." Enclose a self-addressed envelope and 10c in coin, addressing your request to me in care of this newspaper.

TOMORROW: Beauty Nominations.

Daily Comet Nov. 14

LONDON (UPI) — Daily transatlantic Comet IV jet service by British Overseas Airways Corp. will begin Nov. 14, it was announced Thursday. Boac had planned to start the London-New York daily service earlier but a strike by maintenance workers at London Airport forced the delay.

VISAS WAIVED FOR SCOUTS

MANILA (UPI) — President Carlos P. Garcia has waived visa fees and visa requirements of overseas delegations to the 10th Boy Scout World Jamboree to be held south of Manila next year, it was reported Thursday. Jorge Vargas, president of the Boy Scouts of the Philippines, said Garcia had authorized the use of special identification cards in place of passports. Sixty-nine countries are expected to send delegations to the jamboree.

Why not try something new...?

For forty years the six members of the House of Delegates from this County have been Republicans, and one of their functions has been to fight the Democratic majority which controls the Maryland Legislature. We respectfully suggest that it would be wise to have Democratic representation which would work with this Democratic majority.

The Democratic Eastern Shore Counties are noted for getting their full share of everything at Annapolis, and Democrats from this County could do the same for Allegany County.

In this campaign practically the sole argument of our opponents is that a solid Republican delegation will avoid partisan dissension in the delegation, but they fail to mention the dissension they create by continuously opposing the Democratic majority in the Legislature.

We are confident that we could agree on good local legislation with any Republicans who may be elected, and we are absolutely certain that we could work to better advantage with the Democratic majority than can Republicans who constantly oppose that majority.

Surely, after forty years of uninterrupted Republican representation, it is time for a change, and we ask you to make a change by giving us a chance to serve you and our County at Annapolis.

W. Va. Man Badly Burned In Home Fire

A 76-year-old man was severely burned in a fire that destroyed a home in Hampshire County, W. Va., Wednesday afternoon.

Admitted to Winchester (Va.) Memorial Hospital was Harry McGill, whom attaches said was badly burned about the hands and trunk of his body. Attaches reported him in "fair" condition today.

McGill had been living at the farm home owned by Miss Ethel May Funk near Hanging Rock. The home and a nearby shed were leveled by the flames which also started a woodland blaze.

The fire was discovered by Joe D. Michael, forester for the Hampshire and Mineral County area, while he was in the fire tower located on Ben's Knob of Cooper Mountain.

Volunteer fire companies from Romney, Capon Bridge, Augusta and Slanesville responded to the call and battled the flames for nearly two hours before bringing them under control.

Michael said the firemen reported the blaze originated when McGill was starting a fire with kerosene and the fumes exploded. The buildings were only partially covered by insurance.

Firemen also said a valuable collection of antique coins was destroyed in the fire.

Keech Wants Buildings Torn Down

Removal of the vacant buildings awaiting the wrecker's hammer at the site of the new low-rent housing project on Oldtown Road is being sought by Mayor J. Edwin Keech.

Mayor Keech met yesterday with James B. Raines, executive secretary of the Housing Authority of Cumberland, to determine steps that could be taken to raze the structures.

He pointed to the fire hazard that exists and to the danger of small children who might wander into the gutted buildings.

The properties have been purchased and the families have moved, and their removal is awaiting the start of the city's third housing project.

After the session yesterday with Raines, the mayor announced that another meeting is scheduled with the executive secretary and others on the housing authority today.

Then on Wednesday, city officials will attend the regular meeting of the housing authority to discuss the matter of having the buildings removed.

The mayor said he has taken up the matter with each commissioner, and has the support of each one in this project.

CLAUDE G. SHAFFER

C&A Gas Company Head In Parsons Area Retires

PARSONS — Cumberland and Allegheny Gas Company's local official, Claude G. Shaffer, will end a 38-year career with the utility with his retirement today.

The 65-year-old local manager joined the gas company in 1920 in Bayard. He came to Parsons 30 years ago, in 1928, and has worked here ever since.

About 40 of Shaffer's co-workers in this area will attend a dinner given in his honor tomorrow evening at the First Methodist Church here.

A native of Tucker County, Shaffer first worked for the gas company in 1912 and 1913 on a part-time basis. He entered the Army and served in France during World War I. Following his discharge, he re-joined the gas company as a full-time member.

In 1931, the local official was made foreman. Six years later he was promoted to assistant agent. Then in 1943, he was named local manager.

Over the 15-year period he has been Parsons manager, gas users have grown from a few hundred in number to more than 1900 now being furnished service from the local office. Volume of deliveries to these customers has shown an even greater growth as hundreds of area families switched to gas heat from other fuels.

He and his wife, the former Wavey V. Arnold, reside at 303 Spruce Street. They have four daughters and one son, and 10 grandchildren.

Mr. Shaffer has been active in various community affairs during the period he has lived in Parsons. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce and Knights of Pythias. He is past governor of the local Moose Lodge, past commander of the Cheat Valley American Legion post and past commander of the Legion's ninth district.

His hobbies include hunting and fishing. His post-retirement plans are not complete, but will certainly include participating in his favorite hobbies, he says.

Rev. A. S. Mann Announces His Retirement

Served 51 Years In Ministry

PARSONS — Rev. Andrew B. Mann, pastor of the Thomas-Davis Presbyterian churches, announced his retirement from the ministry at a recent meeting in Hancock. Representative Elders Roy Carriock and Adam Arnold responded with laudatory speeches and a standing ovation was given Rev. Mr. Mann by his ministerial colleagues.

His retirement, which becomes effective January 1, follows 35 years of service in the Thomas-Davis area and nearly 51 years in the ministry. He is the oldest active member and second in point of service in the Winchester Presbytery.

He has received various high honors from the Presbytery. Three times he represented his church as commissioner to the General Assembly, and he also served as moderator of the Presbytery.

He is a member of the Presbyterian examining board whose duty it is to examine seminary graduates about to enter the ministry. He is a member of the executive committee of Home Missions, the executive committee of women's work and the committee on evangelism.

Born in Scotland, one of the eleven children of James and Jean (Brown) Mann, the family was "Highlander." The tradition is that they are direct descendants of John Knox, the Scottish reformer, and that they took part in the work of the reformation.

Rev. Mr. Mann was educated in public schools in Scotland, and received his academic training in Bridgend Mining School Academy, an extension of the University of Edinburgh. As a student at Bridgend Academy, he twice won the fast walking championship of Scotland by covering three miles in 23 minutes and two miles in 15 minutes.

On November 16, 1907, Rev. Mr. Mann sailed from Scotland for New York. Fifteen years later he received his naturalization papers in Harrisonburg, Va.

He assumed his first pastoral duties in 1909 when he was assigned to Bethany Church in Cumberland. Rev. Mr. Mann was received into the Virginia Conference of the U. B. Church March 26, 1911. He was ordained to the ministry in Harrisonburg on September 29, 1918, studied theology through Bonebrake Theological Seminar Extension Course and graduated in 1920 at Dayton, Ohio. He was received into Winchester Presbytery in 1923.

During the years of his ministry Rev. Mr. Mann has served in the following religious fields: he was assistant secretary of the B&O YMCA in Cumberland for two years. He served one year as general secretary to the YMCA in Ontario, Canada, and it was from there that he entered the ministry, giving 51 years of Christian service.

His pastorates were served at Bayard, Petersburg, the South Branch Field, Staunton, Va., Cumberland and the Davis-Thomas area.

Westernport Employees Disagree On Insurance

WESTERNPORT — Town employees failed to agree on features of a death, health, accident and hospitalization insurance policy at a meeting of Mayor Ray L. Wilt and Council.

It was a group plan in which the town would pay a part of the premium for municipal workers. Eleven were agreeable to one plan, but their are 14 town employees and all must accept it before they will be able to get the policy. The town will ascertain if 11 of the men can secure the policy.

The Mayor and Commissioners did not insist that all employees accept the policy if they were opposed to it.

Council ordered that $1,218.00 be transferred from the town account to the sewer account and that $2,716.18 be transferred from the water account to the town account.

count. Mayor Wilt reported that fees received from the parking meters last week amounted to $73.15.

A fire trail will be dug by employees of the municipalities of the Tri-Towns around the garbage dump which is rented from the Pattison Coal Company in the vicinity of Bloomington.

The trail will be 300 feet around the dump and between 25 and 30 feet wide. Work will begin Monday morning.

This decision was made following a conference with officials Westernport, Piedmont and Luke, and Elmer H. Upole and John Foley, representing the Department of Forestry and Parks, last night.

Farm Course Offered Adults At Northern Hi

ACCIDENT—Adult education in farm mechanics will again be offered at Northern High School this year, according to John Reckner, vocational agriculture teacher.

This course, designed to aid farmers in the care and repair of farm machinery, as well as the construction of machinery and equipment, consist of one three-hour session each week for 16 consecutive weeks, Reckner said.

The first meeting has been scheduled for Thursday at 7 p.m., and classes will be held each Thursday evening thereafter.

A feature of the farm mechanics course will be a five-week short course in arc welding. Any person residing in the school area who desires to participate in this phase of the school's adult education program and has not already registered for the course, should contact Reckner, or they may enroll by attending the first session of the class.

The Commission on Education is planning the party for all members of the church school. This is to be a costume party and there will be prizes awarded.

The Senior Choir is continuing with their rehearsals for the Christmas Cantata to be given on Christmas eve in connection with their annual Christmas eve midnight service. Rehearsals are scheduled every Thursday at 7 p.m. at the church.

Sunday evening the Senior Choir participated in the choral program at Lonaconing Presbyterian Church. Choirs from several churches in the area were present for the service.

Miller Urges W.Va. Voters To Support School Amendment

PAW PAW—Henry W. Miller Jr., a member of the Morgan County Board of Education and the West Virginia State Commission of Education, has released a statement calling for support of an amendment to the state constitution which will be offered for consideration of voters on Election Day, November 4.

The amendment, Miller said, is designated as "State Superintendent of Free Schools," and is being offered on the recommendation of the State Commission of Education after that group termed the present method of selecting a state superintendent "one of the most serious weaknesses in the state school system."

Miller's statement, in part, follows: "According to an ancient provision in the State Constitution, dating back to 1872, 'the state superintendent of free schools shall be elected by the voters every four years.'"

"Under the proposed amendment to the constitution, to be voted on at the polls November 4, the state superintendent of schools will be employed by the state board of education and serve at the will and pleasure of the board. I respectfully urge that every voter interested in improving the opportunities of our youth vote for this very important amendment."

"The following questions and answers are submitted in the hope they will help to show more clearly the great need for this change in the constitution of West Virginia."

"Question: Does the state superintendent of schools as now elected by the people have to be experienced and qualified to serve?"

"Answer: No. Most any citizen of the state with enough political power to be elected can become state superintendent of schools. Legally, a superintendent doesn't even have to know how to read or write."

Revenue Agent Denies Charge In Tax Trial

BALTIMORE (AP)—A federal revenue agent took the stand Thursday and denied he had ever said he had enough on Blain Frantz to put the Western Maryland lumber and cattle dealer, his wife and three children in jail.

Milton Kyhos, special agent for the Internal Revenue Service, was one of the last witnesses called in the 4-day-old Federal Court trial of Frantz who is charged with evading taxes totaling $25,240 over a three-year period.

A onetime business associate of Frantz testified Wednesday that Kyhos had approached him in 1956 and made the statement about the 52-year-old defendant and his family.

Final arguments were completed and the case is expected to go to the jury early Friday.

Mrs. Iva Frantz, wife of the Friendsville resident, testified earlier Thursday that she signed all checks for her husband's business.

Mrs. Frantz said she verified their bank balance "off and on." Questioned by Judge R. Dorsey Watkins, Mrs. Frantz said she did not give all financial records to the bookkeeper who prepared Frantz's tax returns.

Referring to testimony that Frantz maintained accounts in four banks, Judge Watkins asked: "Was there any reason for giving him just the Garrett (National Bank) account and not the others?"

"No sir. There wasn't," the witness replied.

D. E. Ringer, a wholesale gasoline dealer who said Frantz's monthly account with him sometimes ran as high as $2,500, said he was convinced the defendant "didn't have sufficient records to know" whether the lumber and cattle operations were operating at a loss or profit.

GOP Group To Attend Rally In Baltimore

A large delegation of Republicans from Allegany County plans to attend tonight's rally in Baltimore, at which President Eisenhower will speak. J. Glenn Beall Jr., chairman of the Allegany County Republican State Central Committee, said the rally is expected to draw a crowd of about 12,000 to the Fifth Regiment Armory.

Democrats

ary. He found out from Dr. Prather, director of the State Department of Health, that $100,000 should be obtained from the federal government on a matching basis for the expansion of the Infirmary.

"Mr. Wilkinson tried again in January 1958 to have something done about this, but his associates at that time, Messrs. Lemert and Orr, refused to do anything. The opportunity to get the $100,000.00 federal appropriation expired in June 1958 and the money was returned to the Federal Treasury. We have thus lost this opportunity to obtain about one-half the cost of the expansion from the federal government and at the same time many deserving citizens are unable to get in the Infirmary because of lack of room.

"If elected, we Democratic candidates will do everything we can to provide an adequate Infirmary for this county, but we will not be able to secure the $100,000.00 from the federal government because the time to get it has passed," he said.

William J. Brode, the party's third member of the county commission slate, charged that the present county board has no respect for the way it spends the county's money. He charged the board members are interested only in perpetuating a chosen few in public office and are not interested in the future welfare of the county or of its present or future citizens.

Howard P. Loughrie, candidate for sheriff, reiterated his platform and experience as a peace officer. He pressed again for a county-wide program for young people, such as the Junior Sheriff Association, to help curb the problem of increasing delinquency.

Candidates for the House of Delegates George A. Boch, Thomas F. Conlon Jr., Graydon S. Dunlap, Edward P. Flanagan and William Walsh, also took to task the Republican candidates.

Is A Tight Money Policy Needed?

Leaders of the Federal Reserve System are speaking in terms of embarking on a tight money policy to prevent inflation and make for sound, stable dollars. They say business recovery is proceeding at such a rapid rate that early action is necessary.

As is no secret, psychology is a powerful factor in both boom and recession. Financial wizards assert that the inflation psychology is a real menace.

People with money are reluctant to invest in bonds because of fear that repayments will be worth less than the invested dollars. A Federal Reserve spokesman says investors are suffering from "almost psychotic" fears of inflation.

The United States Treasury already realizes that because of difficulties of refunding the whopping national debt, if the retreat from bonds goes far enough, other units of government may be in trouble for credit to make improvements.

Determination of the Federal Reserve System to put tight credit and monetary policy clamps on inflation was shown by the attitude of delegates to the American Bankers Association convention in Chicago. Banks are becoming selective in their lending policies because the demand for lendable funds threatens to outrun the supply of money.

Some bankers at the convention said they will take care of short-term needs of their steady customers. But those seeking long term credit will have to look elsewhere.

The result of all this can only be awaited. Money management is tied up with politics. If tight credit threatens another recession, there will be a great hoorah for loose money policies.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Winner Take All

Madison Avenue in New York City is a place where women shop and advertising agencies are congregated. There is a bit of doggerel which says: "Telegraph, telephone, tell a woman!" The advertising agencies used to devote themselves strictly to commodity selling and the public relations firms to representing great corporations. When a public relations counsel represented an individual, he used to be called a press agent, which is still a generic term for the breed. When he had an actress bathe in milk to establish that she is an actress, he was regarded as a genius among press agents. However, few advertising firms or public relations firms went into politics which is controversial.

In fact, advertising firms used to say that just as many Democrats as Republicans buy soap or eat sardines or whatever it is they had to sell, and why get into a controversy? That is how, in the 1930s, the liberals got the conservatives off the air, because liberals were never controversial, even if they were disguised Communists, but conservatives were always controversial even if they were at heart patriots. It was a curious distinction which no one ever understood.

Since Wendell Willkie ran for President, some advertising firms have specialized in politics and many public relations firms have gone into it too. Sometimes it is disguised as institutional advertising. At other times, it is an outright effort to get the nomination for a person or to get him elected. In fact, since candidates became too busy to write their own speeches, some of these advertisers and public relations counsel prepare their speeches and even ideas.

All these various purveyors of selling ideas depend upon certain simple notions which have proved true by long experience. One of these is that all the world loves a winner. Therefore, in a political campaign one of the tricks is to give the impression that, despite all odds, a certain candidate is bound to win. Evidence is adduced by polls that a shift has taken place. The whispering campaign starts with a simple aphorism: "He is doing better than expected."

Actually no candidate is doing one way or the other until the votes are in. But polls are taken, surveys are made, excitement is created. It used to be done by torch-light processions; now it is done by whispering. The whispering campaign is always organized from the top down. A man with a name, prominently placed, will say in a restaurant, a little louder than is permissible, "It looks like Jones has it in the bag." Or such a distinguished person, who is on the inside, will telephone a talkative friend and say that he knows, beyond doubt, that Smith is worried, his wife, with whom the telephone dined last night, is absolutely scared because it is so clear that Jones has it in the bag.

But how can one know two or three weeks before Election Day? Actually one knows nothing. What the brain-washers count on is the popular feeling that "I want to be on the side that wins."

Why? Does the winner want to be on your side? The whispering campaign ignores that question. It recognizes old clichés: "Everybody loves a winner." Just get it into the people's minds that Jones or Smith or Schmalz is a winner and the so-called independent vote, that is those who can not make up their minds on principles but say that they vote for men about whom they know nothing, will go with the winner. Test this at home. Say to your young daughter who two generations ago would have been spanked for smoking: "Why do you smoke Hi-Lo cigarettes?" She will answer, "All the kids smoke them. Gee, Mom, don't be a square."

So it is in politics. If you use your brains, you are controversial. If you think you are a square. So you might as well vote for the winner. Who's the winner? The guy whose advertising agency or public relations firm or policy relations firm (that's a new gimmick) succeeds in giving the impression that its man is the one who cannot lose.

(This article is written after I have received several telephone calls attempting to brain-wash me about who the winner is going to be. I should worry between Mr. Mutt and Mr. Jeff.)

Ammunition On The 'Off' Days

Reds Will Make Capital Of U.S. Election Results

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — The Russian radio stations probably have their scripts already written for the day after next week's Congressional election in the United States. All they have to do is to read the current polls and public opinion surveys published in the American press.

The Soviet broadcasts doubtless will say that the American people, by giving the Democrats control of Congress by an even bigger margin than before, have repudiated the Eisenhower Administration's foreign policy.

Despite the efforts to force foreign policy out of the campaign, certain spokesmen of the Democratic Party who are prominent members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee have publicly questioned the right of the President to defend the Quemoy and Matsu islands and have called for Congressional action to checkmate the Administration.

The Communists in recent weeks have been playing along with their off-again-on-again cease-fire in the Far East but, with the American election over and the headlines telling of a big victory for the opposition party in the United States, the Soviets will unquestionably proclaim in the Communist world and to the peoples of the neutralist countries that Mr. Eisenhower's leadership has been disparaged by a majority of his own people.

This possible development was, of course, one of the reasons why, even inside the Democratic Party, leaders like former President Truman warned against making our Far Eastern policy an issue in the current campaign.

Now, however, the fat is in the fire and the statements issued by other Democrats, plus the election results, will be construed as meaning that the Far Eastern policy of the Administration may be reversed.

The big question whether, after next week's election, the Communists will venture to test out or challenge the American government's position by making a military effort to wrest the off-shore islands and possibly Formosa from the control of the Nationalist Chinese. This could be a miscalculation which might lead to the outbreak of a big war. The next two or three weeks, therefore, may prove a crucial time in American history because the Communists may decide soon whether they will press their aggression now that "peace at any price" seems to be so popular in this country.

Actually, so far as votes for individual Congressmen or Senators are concerned the outcome of the election will not have been influenced in any material degree by foreign policy. Congressional elections are primarily local and are affected mostly by economic issues.

But the writers of the Soviet propaganda do not feel any obligation to analyze accurately the significance of American elections. The European mind is accustomed anyhow to thinking in parliamentary terms. When the political party of a premier or prime minister is defeated in a general election, it usually means the downfall of that particular leader as well as his party. It is not as widely known in the world as it should be that the Constitution of the United States provides for a four-year term for the Presidency and that for the next two years the Republican Party will control the Executive Branch, with the power to conduct foreign relations. The assent of Congress is needed for treaties and appropriations. The cooperation of the Democratic Party in the last two years on vital points of foreign policy will doubtless be continued

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt

Sayed Ali, a native of Kelu-seh, Iran, claims he's 189 years old, says he has papers to prove it. When that fellow speaks of the "good old days" he probably means 1769 or thereabouts.

A question we'd like to ask Ali: What is the hardest—the first or the second 190 years?

Ali, no doubt, has long since gone into retirement. However, he could still pick up a few bucks or so by posing as Father Time for those New Year's Day newspaper cartoons.

If Iran had social security, suggests F. E. F., old Ali would have the government bankrupt.

Ali we read lives apart from having quarreled with his 103-year-old son. Some kids just won't take their Pa's advice.

Sayed Ali may be the world's oldest person but he's not such a much alongside some real old-timers. Compared to the Biblical Methuselah, who lived to the ripe 969, Ali's not even a teen-ager!

Rep. Miller Of Eastern Shore Criticized For His Voting Record

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — One of the best ways to measure the quality of any Congressman is to study the people who put up the money for his campaign. This is why candidates are required by law to list their campaign contributors. If a candidate gets labor contributions you can be pretty sure he'll vote for labor. If he gets heavy business contributions he's likely to vote for big business.

Sometimes you'll run across a man who represents a farm-labor area, yet is voting constantly for big business. Usually campaign contributions are the reason.

Take the case of mousy, inconspicuous Congressman Edward T. Miller, Republican, who represents the Eastern Shore of Maryland, that flat long peninsula between Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean famous for its crabs, tomatoes, peaches, canning factories, and bathing beaches.

Ordinarily the Congressman from this area would be voting for the farmer and for the little fellow. Plenty of men have been out of work, and long lines applying for relief stood outside the Salisbury, Md., unemployment office last spring and winter.

However, Miller has an almost 100 per cent record of voting against legislation to benefit the farmer. He also opposed a plan to distribute surplus farm products to needy families, and against a bill granting loans to build marketing facilities for perishable farm products. Yet his Eastern Shore of Maryland grows highly perishable farm products.

Miller also voted against the Eisenhower aid to scientific education, against public housing, against area redevelopment, but for the Rivers and Harbors pork barrel bill and for subsidies for airlines and federal loans to railroads.

Who Puts Up The Money

If you look at the list of Miller's contributors at this last election, you may get some idea of why he votes this way.

One of his big contributors, $500, is Donaldson Brown, former vice president of General Motors, now a director of Du Pont. Mrs. Brown gave $250.

Another heavy contributor was the Pew family of Philadelphia—though they don't live in Miller's state. The Pews who own the Sun Oil Company, Sun Shipbuilding and various other big corporations, gave $750.

Another juicy contribution came from Amory Houghton, head of Corning Glass in New York, who reached all the way across the Atlantic from his post as American Ambassador to France to give this inconspicuous Congressman $1,000.

Edgar Garbisch of General Foods, the Postum Co., Cellulose Products and the Grocery Store Products Company also tossed in $500, while his wife, who used to be Bernice Chrysler, tossed in another $500.

The Phillips canning family also ponied up one grand. They run one of the big canneries on the Eastern Shore. No wonder Miller didn't vote for federal loans to build marketing facilities for perishable products. His friends the Phillipses would rather can them.

Congressman Miller has a most inconspicuous record in the House of Representatives. He seldom makes a speech, seldom introduces a bill. He has authored no important legislation. He is known as a faithful, consistent voter for big business. Almost never does he stray from the policies of those who put up the money to send him back to Congress.

However, he did introduce two strange bills at the last Congressional session which bear scrutiny. They show how a Congressman can operate not for the voters who elect him but for business firms far from his district.

The two bills provided for the sale of two ships from the government's reserve fleet. Nothing was said in the bills as to who would buy them, but specifications in the bill were tailor-made so that only two companies could effectively bid. They were:

1. Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co., which under Miller's House Resolution 8342 would have been able to buy a reserve government vessel.

2. Great Lakes Oceanic Line of Detroit which, under Miller's Resolution 8343, would have been able to buy another reserve vessel.

Since they would be the only bidders under the specifications written into Miller's resolutions, presumably they would buy at a cheap price.

Neither of these companies operates in the Congressman's district. Cleveland and Detroit are a long way from Maryland. Yet these two bills were among the scanty legislation Miller has introduced in Congress. Why is a mystery which Miller's office is not talking about.

Fortunately Democrats on the Marine Committee bottled up the bills even though Sen. John Marshall Butler of Maryland also pushed them. As a result of Democrats' opposition, the two ships were not sold.

Jim Bishop: Reporter

By Jim Bishop

Man has struggled for 4,000 years to coat himself with the veneer of civilization. He worked himself up from caves to communities; from selfishness to social consciousness; from grunts to refined articulation. He has taught himself many things. But he still does not know how to dispose of his dead.

Nothing is as tribal as the services for the dead. It doesn't matter which church; which funeral parlor; the gathering of the clan in grief under flickering candles and palms is an exhibition of superstitious incantations. It is an aboriginal parading of a body, with paint, powder, watches, rings, even eyeglasses.

The body, once gone, is useless and worthless. It is a kind of atavistic cruelty to put it on display. The soul is all that matters. It lives. Do we rejoice? The heck we do. We look at the clay and cry.

The point is that man has moved from the ox to the atom in intelligent strides, but when he is overcome by sorrow, he moves backward 35 or 40 centuries. In anger, he moves backward too toward blind unreasoning rage, but that's another story.

The oldest bones found are at the bottom of rivers. Those at Trinil are believed to have been thrown into water during the early part of the last ice age. Later, men dug shallow holes in caves and buried their dead and placed stones and flint on top to protect the deceased.

Always, man was torn between protecting the bodies and destroying them. On the ghats of India the dead are buried and fed to the birds. The natives of the Solomon Islands, in solemn ceremony, still place their loved ones on the edge of coral reefs, for the sharks.

In ancient Europe, bodies were placed on their sides, arms crossed on chest, knees drawn up, in the foetal position. The thinking seemed to be: "This is the way they arrived; this is the way they go."

In Africa, the dead were bound tightly to keep them from visiting the living. In Ancient Egypt, the bodies were mummified and wrapped tightly to preserve the remains. For what? So that some British curator, 3,000 years later, could find the bodies and move them to an English museum for exhibition.

Cremation was, for the Mayans, a mark of enormous respect; the ancient Jews reserved it for criminals. In parts of South America, bodies were dehydrated and placed in beautiful jars. The early Christians turned the feet of the deceased toward the East, where they were expected to go when the Day of Judgment arrived. Buddhists still dispose of their dead by facing the top of the head to the north, face up — as Buddha died.

The Mohammedan must lie on his right side, facing Mecca. The Japanese is placed in a tub, sitting up. In the tribes, burial services were staged only for chiefs and affluent citizens. The nonentities who had been chronically ill were often buried alive.

Some of the religious groups, until recent centuries, held a council over the deceased to determine whether his soul had gone to its reward or was earth-bound. If it was earth-bound, they placed thorns in the bare feet so that he could not walk, and sunk briars into the grave so that he could not escape.

Others place food into the coffin with the dead; a few tribes cut themselves and bled into the coffin to give the soul strength for its flight. Ridiculous? No more so than the civilized Christian method of sitting on camp-chairs for three days to look at an expensive box with shroud silver handles and shirred satin.

To die, I am convinced, is not a difficult act. Do not pity the dead. Reserve your anguish for the next of kin, who must, by tradition, shed their tears in public. The widow who sobs sleeplessly and without food; the red-eyed bewildered children who cringe before the casket are worthy of your most tender solicitation.

Is there an answer to this barbarism? No. It is impossible to buck the tide of tradition. The superstitious practices of our tribes will continue. Still, it seems strange to me that so much attention and time and money are devoted to the body, when the soul begs mutely for a single prayer of petition.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

When a kid tells his parents, "I didn't hit him. I just sort of pushed him" or "I didn't do a thing," he really means he just walloped his younger brother. On the other hand when he hollers "M-O-M-M-Y!" he means his younger brother has just walloped him. This information comes from a real authority, Robert Paul Smith. He also has the translation for a 12-year-old girl's wails, "I wish I was dead." She plans to lie on her stomach on her bed all afternoon, refusing all nourishment except a carton of soft drinks, three boxes of chocolate crackers and a jar of cocktail onions.

Further disclosures of similar import can be found in the pages of Smith's "Translations from the English."

problems. If a woman finds her husband straying, she goes to a friend's doctor. He tells her that another woman is using medicine against her so that her husband detests her presence. He has decided to sleep in another part of the house because she smells like stale fish.

The perturbed woman then asks for protection and a cure. The doctor gives her four medicines: one, to clean out her intestine; two, for the morning bath; three, to be applied to the face; four, a secret medicine to be mixed with dirt and put in her husband's food.

The neglected wife follows directions and one day her husband says, "My wife, I love you very much. The devil wanted to separate us. I'm so pleased I defied his wish."

American physicians and marriage counselors could not do better. The physician might prescribe a tranquilizer to help her bear her grief but the African goes to the heart of the matter and prescribes a remedy geared to the native way of life.

REDUCING IN ARTHRITIS

Mrs. G. writes: I have arthritis and my doctor put me on a starvation diet to lose weight. I'm hungry and weak all the time and the pain in my back and hips is no better. Is there any use in continuing this treatment?

REPLY

Give it a fair trial. Slight alterations in the diet may help you to avoid hunger and weakness.

EAR INFECTION

Mrs. W. writes: Can infection in the middle ear be cured by operation? Medicines have done no good.

REPLY

Yes. The most common operation is puncturing the eardrum to allow pus to escape. If infection persists there is a possibility the mastoid is involved. A second operation may be needed to promote drainage from this structure.

IMMUNITY TO BRUCellosis

F. J. writes: Can undulant fever occur more than once?

REPLY

Yes. Apparently one attack does not confer absolute immunity.

TOO MUCH BLOOD

J. H. writes: What causes an overabundance of red blood cells?

REPLY

Known causes include certain types of heart and lung diseases, high altitudes, and dehydration. In primary polycythemia, the cause is not known. The bone marrow works overtime and manufactures red blood corpuscles faster than they are destroyed normally.

FOOT ODOR

J. W. writes: What makes the feet smell? When I undress for bed I can hardly stand it.

REPLY

The odor stems from the presence of micro-organisms that thrive in the moist creases between the toes. You may have ringworm or allergy to the chemicals in the hose or shoes.

TOMORROW: Be kind to your feet.

Cereal Swedish Meat Balls

Cereal Swedish Meat Balls make an excellent entree. They can be partially prepared ahead of time, are quick and easy to mix, inexpensive, moist, and flavorful, hold well over a prolonged serving time, and are full of good nutrition.

Rolled oats are ready to use as they come from the package—no further preparation is necessary. In addition to increasing the yield, adding flavor, keeping the meat balls moist and tender, rolled oats increase the protein, B vitamin, essential mineral, and food energy values of the recipe.

Cereal Swedish Meat Balls

- 1 pound ground beef
- $\frac{2}{3}$ cup quick or regular oats
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon salt
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon pepper
- 2 cups milk
- 3 tablespoons fat
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 beef bouillon cube
- 3 tablespoons flour

Combine beef, quick or regular oats, egg, onion, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper, and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk. Mix well and shape into 24 balls. Brown meat balls in hot fat. Cover with water in which bouillon cube has been dissolved. Cover pan and allow to simmer gently until balls are done, about 30 minutes. Remove balls from pan and stir in flour. Add remaining milk and stir until gravy is smooth and thick. Add meat balls to gravy and serve. Yield: 24 balls. 4 to 5 servings.

Solving Recipe Problem

Here is a how-to-do-it problem in recipe planning.

The important fact presented to the homemaker in this case is leftover lamb. The solution is the creation of a main dish treat for dinner.

Let's first investigate your pantry or cupboard shelf. A can of condensed onion soup is available. Now this would add a distinctive flavor note to the meat. What could be added for color effect . . . perhaps you'll find a bottle of chili sauce in the refrigerator ready for use. Now for texture, see if you have any celery or sesame seed. In combination with lamb, maybe the celery seed would be an exciting texture and flavor addition. By combining all these ingredients and adding the meat, your test is ready . . . simply heat through and serve. The final check on this experiment in problem solving is the "OK" seal of approval from the family.

Lamb Quickie

6 slices or 2 to 3 cups cubed, cooked lamb
1 can (10 $\frac{3}{4}$ ounces) condensed onion soup
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon celery seed
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup prepared chili sauce
Mix onion soup, celery seed, and chili sauce in frying-pan. Add lamb. Cover tightly and simmer until thoroughly heated, about 10 minutes. Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

ELEGANT SAUSAGE ENTREE

Gather ye 'round and try these delicious Sausage Cornelles. To prepare, simply combine $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds bulk pork sausage with a 14-ounce can of crushed pineapple. Be sure the pineapple is drained. Shape this mixture into 8 patties, about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick. Dip patties into beaten egg, then roll in crushed corn flakes. Brown patties in melted lard, turning occasionally until done, about 45 minutes.

STEAK WRAPAROUNDS

Give round steak that best ever appearance by preparing this unusual named recipe . . . Steak Wraparounds. Cut 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ pounds of round steak (sliced about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick) into 6 rectangular pieces. Lay half slice of bacon and half slice of dill pickle on each piece. Roll individual pieces and fasten with a tooth pick. Brown in lard or drippings and cook meat slowly for 1 to 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ hours in a mixture of $\frac{1}{4}$ cup catchup, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup water and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

So easy! So high 'n light! So good!

Never-Fail Party Popovers

Beat 1 cup sifted flour, $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp. Sterling Salt, 1 cup milk, 2 eggs until just smooth. (Use blender if you have one.) Pour into well-greased deep muffin tins, $\frac{3}{4}$ full. Bake in hot oven (425°) 40 to 45 minutes until golden brown. Serve hot with loads of butter. Recipe makes 6-8 popovers.

Holiday hint: Don't run out of salt when you need it most—buy two packages of Sterling Salt next time you shop.

THRIFT AND SATISFACTION

When using low temperature to cook meat, here are some of the dividends you'll receive... more uniformly cooked meat; juicier and more tender meat; and more easily carved meat. Make the test yourself. You'll also find that meat cooked at a low temperature will require less watching during the cooking period.

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM?

When meat for a stew is purchased, do you know exactly what you're receiving? What type of meat is made into a stew? When purchased at your local meat retailer's more than likely the stew meat is cut from the breast, shoulder, shank or leg — all excellent sources of high quality protein.

Sausage Dish That's A Winner

A recipe you're certain to serve often is this Vienna Sausage Casserole. Why? Here, sausage, Vienna-style sausage, reaches what the masters of menus might call "the top of the ladder."

This casserole actually takes only 30 minutes baking time. Just read over the list of ingredients in this recipe and you will see why Vienna-style Casserole has become such a delightful luncheon or Saturday night supper dish.

Vienna Sausage Casserole
2 cans (4 ounces each) Vienna-style sausages
1 tablespoon chopped onion
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups milk
1/4 cup grated sharp cheddar cheese
1 package (10 ounces) frozen broccoli, cooked milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add cheese and cook very slowly until melted. Cut broccoli into 1-inch pieces and place in bottom of a greased, 1 1/2-quart casserole. Cover broccoli with a layer of Vienna-style sausages and then a layer of chopped eggs. Pour cheese sauce over top. Mix soft crumbs with melted butter and arrange around the edge of the casserole. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Yield: 4 servings.

The English hire purchase system is called installment buying in the United States.

A shoulder lamb roast is one of the thriftiest buys one can make when selecting lamb for a meal. The tender meat cooks as easily as a leg roast, and it takes to garnishing in the same manner.

Lamb shoulder roasts are available in three forms: shoulder, shoulder roll, and cushion shoulder. The shoulder roast is a square cut with bone in; the roll is boned meat which has been rolled and tied; and the cushion shoulder is the square cut with bone removed to form a pocket to hold stuffing.

The bone-in roast weighs 4 to 5 pounds, while the boned and roll roast and the cushion roast range in weight from 2 1/2 to 4 pounds. Allow 1 1/2 to 2 pounds bone-in shoulder roast per serving; 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 pound of the boned meat for each serving.

To carve a bone-in shoulder roast, first cut off the rib bones. Then cut slices from around the round bone. The flat blade bone may then be cut out and the meat sliced across the grain.

Minted pears, fashioned from canned pears and peppermint extract, were used to garnish the lamb shoulder roast in the following recipe.

6 to 8 canned pear halves
Peppermint flavoring
Green food coloring

Ridgeley, LaSalle Gridders Meet In 18th Game Tonight

Cadets Host Allegany In League Tilt

Keyser Entertains Petersburg; Beall At Charles Town

LaSalle High School's Explorers will be trying to break their longest losing streak since 1955 when they tackle their across-the-Potomac neighbors from Ridgeley High School in the 18th game of their football series in tonight's attraction at the local stadium.

Coach Norm Geatz's team has dropped four games in a row and the remaining games on their 10-game schedule are with Ridgeley, Moorefield, Altoona Catholic and Beall. Three years ago LaSalle's winning streak extended over six games. LaSalle's record to date is one win and five losses and a four-game winning streak would enable the Explorers to finish up with a 5-5 record. They haven't been 500 or better since the 1954 campaign when they won eight games and lost two.

Coach Tom O'Connor's Blackhaws were cooled off last week by the West Virginia School for the Deaf after knocking off Moorefield, Petersburg and Romney and go into tonight's game, their final of the season, with a 5-3 record.

LaSalle won the 1956 and 1957 games and lead in the series with Ridgeley, twelve games to five.

The opening kickoff is set for 8 o'clock.

Campers At Frederick

Coach Ed Schwarz's Allegany High Campers hit the road tonight for a Cumberland Valley Athletic League engagement with the Cadets of Frederick High School. This will be the third meeting of the Campers and Coach Jack Molesworth's team which has yet to score a point against the Campobello eleven. The scores of the 1957 and 1956 games were 20-0 and 12-0.

Allegany's overall record is 5-1 and in the C.V.A.L. it is 2-1 in the season. Frederick's season mark is 2-5 and 1-2 in the seven-school circuit.

Petersburg At Keyser

Keyser High School, winner of 23 consecutive games in the Potomac Valley Conference, needs two more wins to tie the West Virginia School for the Deaf for the title and hopes to get one of those today when Petersburg High School's Vikings are met in Keyser.

Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark's grid warriors (7-1) have a 3-0 record in the conference and must dispose of Petersburg and Romney to retain its position in the championship picture. The Vikings are having a good season and boast a 6-1-1 overall record and are 3-1 in the 10-school league.

Dick Travis' Southern High School eleven (2-6-0) lower the curtain on its schedule today when it plays host to Terra Alta High School from Preston County at Oakland.

Panthers Host Beall

Beall High School's Mountaineers play their last road game of the season at Charles Town High School (3-2-2) today when Jerry Calhoun's outfit will tackle Dick Harrison's Panthers, who are fresh from an 18-13 victory over the Martinsburg Bulldogs. Beall's last three games are at home with Petersburg, Handley of Winchester and LaSalle. The Mountaineers are playing .500 ball to date with a 3-3 record. Today's game at Charles Town will get underway at 1:15 p. m.

George Hoti's Moorefield High School eleven which has closed its P.V.C. season with a 3-3-1 record plays its first non-conference foe today when it tangles with Harpers Ferry (5-1) in the town that John Brown made famous.

Seek Seventh In Row

Undeclared and untied West Virginia School for the Deaf will be angling for its seventh consecutive victory when it opposes Hedgesville High School (0-6) on the Berkeley Counties' field.

Berkeley Springs High will be striving to shake a 5-game losing streak when it collides with the Musselman High Applemen (2-5) this afternoon at Berkeley Springs. Coach Allen Goldstrom's Indians have won two of seven games played to date.

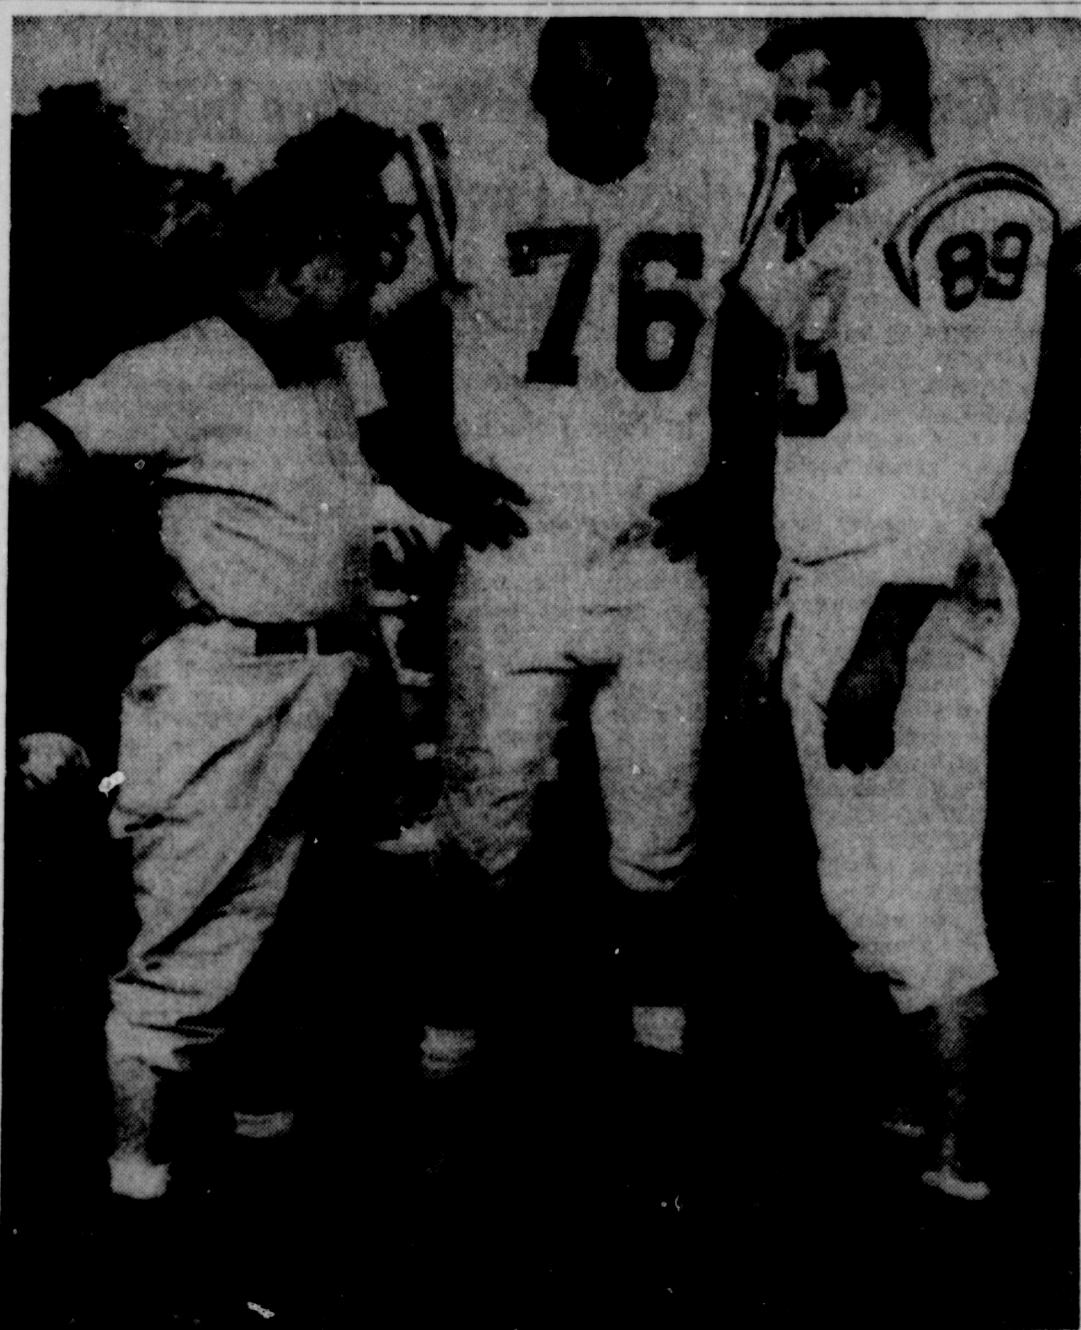

Other Friday Games

Four C.V.A.L. teams will engage in non-league games tonight. South Hagerstown's Rebels host Handley High School, Martinsburg entertains the Warren County Wildcats of Front Royal, Va. Del Henry's North Hagerstown Hubs visit Harrisburg, Pa., to play Central Dauphin High and the Westminster Owls host Hanover (Pa.) High School.

Franklin High School's game at Marlinton today has been cancelled.

SUNKEN YACHT LOCATED

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (UPI)—The submerged wreck of a reef in the eastern Fijis Wednesday was identified positively as the Honolulu yacht Annette which vanished on a voyage between Samoa and Fiji. A ship which confirmed the identification of the yacht, reported no sign of its owners, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Tanner, of Honolulu.

Texas Blows Whistle On Former Champ

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Former heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles was ordered indefinitely suspended Thursday because of his "poor showing" in a Monday night bout at Dallas.

The suspension was ordered by Alton Erickson, supervisor of the boxing and wrestling division of the Texas Bureau of Labor Statistics.

"This is to notify you," Erickson said in a letter to Charles, "That upon the recommendation of Deputy Commissioner Sammy George of Dallas you are suspended indefinitely from boxing because of poor showing in your bout with Donnie Fleeman in Dallas on Monday night, Oct. 27.

"This action is taken not only for the best interest of boxing but also for your own health," Erickson wrote Charles.

George had recommended suspension of Charles because he withheld word of a painful ankle injury from the examining doctor and because his ineffective showing hurt boxing in Dallas. Charles was felled in the sixth round by Fleeman, Texas light-heavyweight champion.

Lithuanian Woman Sets Javelin Record

LONDON (AP)—Agronom Birutė Zalagaitė of Lithuania Thursday bettered the world record for the women's javelin with a throw of 57.49 meters (188 feet, 7.43 inches) at Tiflis, Moscow radio reported.

The listed world mark is 188 feet 4 inches (57.4 meters) established by Anna Pazera of Australia.

Miss Zalagaitė is 24 and javelin champion of the Soviet Union.

Turkey, Squirrel Season Ends In Maryland Today

Archers Hunt Deer Saturday; Rabbits Legal Game Nov. 15

Today is the final day of the turkey and squirrel hunting season in Maryland.

The special deer season for bow and arrow hunters will get underway in Garrett, Allegany and Washington counties Saturday at sunrise and will continue for 12 days, Sundays excepted, through Friday, November 14.

The rabbit, quail and grouse season opens Saturday, November 15, will be suspended during the six-day gunning season for deer, December 1-6, resumes Monday, December 8 and runs through January 5, 1959.

Deer of either sex may be taken during the special bow and arrow season but archers and gunners may play only male deer during the six-day season in December.

Joseph A. Minke, regional game warden, yesterday stated that extension of the small game season into the new year has brought many inquiries regarding hunting licenses. New licenses are not required because the present one covers the period July 1, 1958 through June 30, 1959.

Minke added that 177 turkeys have been checked since the season opened October 5 in Allegany County and that's a new record since checking stations were established in this county. This figure represents kills reported through Wednesday and he expects the final total to approach the 200 mark by the time all returns are tabulated.

Cards Post Fourth Victory In Japan

NAGOYA, Japan (AP)—Bobby Gene Smith led the St. Louis Cardinals to a 7-2 victory over the Japan All-Stars Thursday with a home run, two doubles and a single. It was the Cards' fourth victory in five games on their 16-game tour of Japan.

Joe Cunningham also hit a homer for the big leaguers with Ken Boyer on base in the fourth inning. He also singled in the eighth and scored with catcher Gene Green on Smith's second double.

Larry Jackson shut out the All-Stars for seven innings with only five hits. The Cards' winning pitcher also hit what should have been a triple but wound up as a loud out when he failed to touch first base in the fifth after slamming a long drive to right center.

A 35-yard touchdown run by Halfback Irvin "Peewee" McKee in the third period broke a 6-6 deadlock and gave the Romney High School junior varsity football team a 12-6 victory over the Beall High Jayvees yesterday at Frostburg.

It was the second win of the season for Coach Clyde Green's eleven over the Little Mountaineers.

Romney's first score came in the second period score played after Johnny Blue recovered a Beall fumble on the 34. Blue scored from the two but his pass for the extra point was incomplete.

Don Bush sprinted 65 yards early in the third period for Beall to knot the count at 6-6 but Jim Robertson's placement kick for the point was blocked.

After McKee scored what proved to be the winning touchdown, Kline's kick was blocked.

Russian Horses Stop In London

LONDON (AP)—Two Russian horses, Garnyr and Zaryad, made a brief stop here Thursday on their flight to Laurel Park, Md., to race in the $100,000 Washington, D. C., International Nov. 11. It will be the first time Soviet thoroughbreds have raced outside the Iron Curtain.

Garnyr won the Russian Derby last June, and Zaryad was second. Two Russian jockeys, Nikoali Nasimov who rides Garnyr, and Viktor Kovalev who handles Zaryad, accompanied the two 3-year-old colts.

Their cargo plane is due in New York Friday morning, and the horses will be sent to Baltimore by shuttle plane.

Ernie Banks Tops Voting For AP Major League All-Stars

Four 1957 Players Are Repeaters

Musial, Mantle, Spahn And Aaron Named By Writers

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Shortstop Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs, the major league home run leader this past season, topped the voting for the 1958 Associated Press major league all-star team named Thursday. Banks was named by 160 of the 173 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America participating in the annual poll.

Four Players Repeat

There were only four repeaters from last year's squad. They were first baseman Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals, outfielder Hank Aaron and left-handed pitcher Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves and outfielder Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees.

The others picked were second baseman Nellie Fox of the Chicago White Sox, third baseman Frank Thomas of the Pittsburgh Pirates, outfielder Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants, catcher Del Crandall of the Braves and right-handed pitcher Bob Turley of the Yankees.

Spahn is runner-up. Seven National Leaguers filled seven of the 10 positions. Spahn ranked closest to Banks in the vote-getting with 155, followed by Musial with 134, Mays 132, Turley 113, Aaron 100, Mantle 91 and Fox 85.

The balloting for catcher and third baseman produced the most competition. Crandall received 62 votes as compared to 43 for catcher Sherm Lollar of the White Sox. Thomas was named on 64 ballots while third baseman Frank Malzone of the Boston Red Sox collected 44 votes.

Six of the all-stars hit .300 or better, headed by Mays' .347. Musial batted .337, Aaron .326, Banks .313, Mantle .304 and Fox .300. Banks paced the majors in homers with 47 and runs batted in with 129. Mantle was the American League home run leader with 42.

Spahn won 20 or more games for the ninth time in his career, compiling a 22-11 win-loss record and .667 percentage. He tied teammate Lew Burdette for top percentage in the National loop. His earned run average was 3.07.

Turley had the highest win-loss percentage in the AL, .750. He won 21 and lost 7 and posted a 2.98 ERA.

Ted On Second Team
Both league batting champions, outfielders Ted Williams of the Red Sox and Richie Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phils. were second team choices. Boston's Jackie Jensen was the third outfielder on the second squad.

Others voted to the second team were: First base—Orlando Cepeda, Giants (.21); second base—Bill Mazeroski, Pirates (.48); shortstop—Luis Aparicio, White Sox (.81); left-handed pitcher—Whitely Ford, Yankees (.9) and right-handed pitcher—Bob Friend, Pirates (.40).

Nisht Amool, 9-1, Wins At Jamaica

JAMAICA, N. Y., Oct. 30 (AP)—Alexander J. Ostricker's Nisht Amool, next to the last choice in the betting with the crowd of 17,050 fans, outgamed Mies. Til-who Christopher's Amerigo in the Bridgeport Purse at Jamaica Race Track today.

The margin at the end of the mile and a sixteenth run in the moderate time of 1:44 4/5 was a head. A length and a half back came Wheatley Stable's Misty Flight, who finished a length and a half ahead of Jan Burke's Whodunit, the 3-2 favorite.

Nisht Amool, ridden by Eddie Arcaro, returned the across the board mutuels of $20.00, $7.90 and $5.30. Amerigo paid $5.40 and $3.80 and Misty Flight was $3.50 to show.

Shoe Led At Belmont

NEW YORK (AP) — Willie Shoemaker led the riders with 37 winners in 174 mounts during Belmont Park's fall meeting. However, it put only a dent among the New York riding leaders for Shoe had but three previous winners here during limited riding in the summer. Paul Bailey, second at Belmont with 31, had 44 previous New York winners. Eddie Arcaro, third at Belmont with 25, led the New York brigade with 137 winners when Jamaica reopened for its final 33 days.

Frostburg State Teachers College winds up its soccer season today when it meets Grove City College at Grove City, Pa. It will be the eighth game of the campaign for Coach Kenneth Babcock's Bobcats who have won two, lost three and played two ties. A victory today over Coach Daniel Leviton's Wolverines would put the Mountain City booters in the .500 class for the season.

Frostburg has defeated Western Maryland College, 2-1 and Lynchburg (Va.) College, 4-1, lost to Lock Haven (Pa.) Teachers, 4-2, Slippery Rock (Pa.) Teachers, 4-1, and Washington and Lee University, 2-1, and played scoreless ties with Salisbury (Md.) Teachers and Penn State Freshmen.

Police Nab Eighth Student In Football Betting Card Probe

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (UPI) — State Police Thursday night arrested the eighth person in two days in a football bet-card investigation and involved still another college in the cleanup.

David Martin, 19, Detroit, a sophomore at Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti, Mich., was arrested on a warrant charging participation in an illegal occupation.

Ann Arbor police, who said Martin would be brought before municipal Judge Francis O'Brien Friday morning, said they had requested state police to make the arrest.

Earlier Thursday, the University of Michigan indicated it would take no disciplinary action toward the seven U-M students charged with participating in the rackets until their trials have been concluded.

Northern High, Keyser Jayvees Battle To Draw

Play Scoreless Tie, Fumbles Are Costly

Northern High School's Huskies wound up their first winless season yesterday by battling the Keyser High School junior varsity gridgers to a scoreless tie at Accident.

Both teams had scoring opportunities but muffed them as a result of fumbles.

Coach Joe Stanislawczyk's team appeared to be headed for a touchdown in the second period but fumbled away its chances after advancing to the Huskies' two-yard mark.

In the final period, Northern lost the ball twice on fumbles within Keyser's 20-yard line.

This was the fourth Northern High School team coached by Denver Mitchell and his first loser. The Huskies started football in 1955 and turned in a 2-1-1 record. In 1956 the team won six, lost six and tied one while last year the record was 6-2.

The team played seven games this season, losing six and played one tie. Lineups:

Orioles Consider Lee MacPhail For General Manager

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Lee MacPhail, son of former Yankee boss Larry MacPhail and currently player personnel director for New York, was identified Thursday as one of the men under consideration for general manager and farm system director of the Baltimore Orioles.

Executive Vice President Bill Walsingham Wednesday announced plans to leave the Baltimore club, confirming reports that a front office shake-up was brewing.

Walsingham said he would submit his resignation to the club's board of directors Nov. 21.

Larry MacPhail said from his home at Bel Air Thursday that his son had been contacted about joining the Baltimore organization. The elder MacPhail said he didn't advise Lee either way but did remind him that he would have to have unquestioned authority in such a job.

The father said nobody can handle both Baltimore jobs as Paul Richards has been trying to do.

Winged Foot Longest Host To Open Trophy

Winged Foot Golf Club, Mamaroneck, N. Y., to be scene of the 1959 U. S. Open next June 11-13, holds the record for the longest possession of the famous U. S. Open trophy. When Craig Wood, then professional at Winged Foot, won the title in 1941, the championship was not renewed until 1946, due to World War II. Thus the Mamaroneck club was custodian of the valuable cup for five straight years.

West Virginia Sets Dates For Grid, Cage Contests

1959 Grid Openers Scheduled Weekend After Labor Day

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—The Board of Appeals of the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission decided Thursday that where possible football championship games would be played on Nov. 15.

Meeting in a one-day session, the board said sites would be determined later, but added "they would be in the back yard of one of the participating schools though on a neutral field."

In other business, the board recommended when first games among high school teams should be played next fall, held drawings for the state basketball tournament at Huntington next March and set up an advisory group to further the music education program in the state.

The board adopted a resolution urging that member schools schedule their first 1959 football games the first weekend after Labor Day. The resolution noted that all schools in the state would be open by that time and thereby eliminate any problems that might be created in counties where schools do not open the first week of September.

Drawings for the basketball tournament pitted winners from Class A regions 1 and 2 in the opening game of the two-day tournament scheduled for Huntington. They will play the first game at 9 a. m. March 20. Winners from Class A regions 3 and 4 meet in the second game of the morning session. The two winners then play in the championship game scheduled Saturday March 21 at 1 p. m.

Class AA region winners will play in the afternoon session March 20 beginning at 2 p. m. Pairings pit regions 1 and 2 in the first game and 3 and 4 in the second game. The two winners play in the championship game scheduled immediately following the Class A finale on Saturday.

Class AAA region winners meet in a Friday night session. Drawings pit regions 1 and 2 in the first game and 3 and 4 in the nightcap. The tripe-A championship game is scheduled Saturday night at 7:30 p. m.

Democrats Challenge Republicans

Rowan Answers Green's Charges

Republican candidates for county commissioners, House of Delegates and sheriff were under attack last night as their Democratic opponents and Democratic party leaders "bared the record" at a rally in the Eagles Home. Over 500 persons were on hand for the final major effort prior to election day.

John J. Rowan and John Tucker Mason, candidates for county commissioner, took Simeon W. Green to task for statements attributed to him at a Republican rally a few nights ago.

They said Mr. Green had singled out Patrick J. "Derby" Stakem as an example of a Democrat on the county board and accused him of failure to cooperate in helping locate Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory in Allegheny County.

Mr. Rowan declared, "It is a shame that people have to listen to statements by political candidates about ABL. This defense establishment certainly has no place in a political campaign and the fine people there have every right to resent it. Further, it is difficult to understand why Mr. Green, my Republican opponent, should attack Derby Stakem. It is especially hard to understand why anyone . . . should attack a man who is flat on his back due to long illness and unable to defend himself."

Says Charge Incorrect

Mr. Rowan then charged that statements attributed to Mr. Green were incorrect because Mr. Stakem was appointed a county commissioner by Gov. Herbert R. O'Connor in January 1940, and was not a commissioner in 1938, as Mr. Green alleged.

Mr. Green had specifically charged that Mr. Stakem, in 1938, had refused to sign a telegram from the county board to federal officials for support in establishing the ballistics plant here.

Paul Stakem, son of "Derby" Stakem, said he had asked his father about the situation and Mr. Stakem said, "There was no such telegram while I was in office."

Mr. Mason challenged a statement attributed to Green that the Democratic candidates had no platform and didn't know why they were running. Mason replied, "We are running on a platform of honesty, integrity and intelligence with a desire to serve the people of this county and not arbitrarily rule them. We don't have to hide behind somebody else, but are candidates because we wish to put an end to a Republican dynasty that has retarded progress in this county for too long a time. I think each of us on this county ticket is intelligent enough, well known enough and courageous enough to run on his own."

Supports Infirmary

Mr. Mason declared, "Every one knows that the County Infirmary should be expanded, because there is always a waiting list for from 50 to 100 deserving citizens of this county for whom there is no room in the infirmary, and at this time I understand there are more than 90 on the waiting list."

"In December," Mason continued, "Mr. Jerry Wilkinson, one of the present county commissioners, made efforts to have the county enlarge the infirmary."

Woman Drinks Poison Lotion

A 40-year-old Greene Street woman drank the contents of a bottle of poison ivy lotion late Wednesday night during a party at her home, city police said yesterday.

Mrs. Ruth E. Eastham, 81, Greene Street, was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital about 11 p.m. when she became violently ill after drinking the liquid. Attendants at the hospital said last night she had spent a "fair day" and was taking some nourishment.

Detective Kenneth Morrissey, who investigated the incident, said police were called by Louis W. Allen, Henderson Avenue, who took the woman to the hospital, where her stomach was pumped. Police found a hastily scribbled note which said the woman wanted to leave all her possessions to her sons.

Officials indicated last night the case will be turned over to the state's attorney's office for further investigation pending Mrs. Eastham's recovery.

Watching The Parade

Two little Dutch girls sat down on a Virginia Avenue curbstone last night for a ringside seat at the South Cumberland Business men's Association's Halloween mummies parade. The girls are (left) Mary Ann Scarpelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Scarpelli, 108 Virginia Avenue, and Rozann Dashiell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Dashiell, 24 Washington Street. In rear, left to right, are a cowboy, a large "Zorro," with hand on sword/hilt, and a smaller, more peaceful "Zorro," all otherwise unidentified. The mummies were among hundreds who walked in the parade or stood on the sidelines and watched.

GOP To Wind Up Campaign In Area Today

Rally Is Slated At Lonaconing Club

The Republican Party of Allegheny County will wind up its campaign for the Tuesday's election with a rally tonight at 8 o'clock at the Republican Club in Lonaconing.

Tonight's rally will conclude a series of 12 which have been held throughout the county in the past several weeks, according to Donald W. Mason, county campaign chairman.

The meeting will be featured by a shrimp feed sponsored by Senator J. Glenn Beall and Rep. DeWitt S. Hyde.

State Senator Charles M. See, who is unopposed for re-election, will give the invocation.

John Elliott, president of the Lonaconing Republican Club, will welcome those attending the rally and will introduce Melvin Sloan, who will be master of ceremonies.

Mr. Sloan, who is a trial magistrate in Lonaconing and a member of the Republican State Central Committee, will introduce the unopposed candidates, the other members of the state central committee, and guests.

Delegates Thomas N. Berry, Noel Speir Cook, Fred B. Driscoll, Estel C. Kelley, Lester B. Reed and David J. Williams will give one-minute speeches, and each will introduce the next speaker.

Other Talks Scheduled

The same plan will be followed by the GOP candidates for county commissioner, Simeon W. Green, James Orr and William A. Wilson, and Sheriff Edward R. Muir.

Delegate Cook will give a short talk on behalf of all 18 local candidates who are seeking office. State's Attorney James S. Getty will be the principal speaker and will talk on behalf of the state-wide GOP candidates, James P. Devereux, for governor; Senator Beall for re-election; Rep. Hyde for re-election; John A. Derr, for Comptroller, and Robert A. Wallace, for Attorney General.

Del. Williams will sing a solo during tonight's rally, which is expected to attract a large crowd from the Georges Creek area.

The rally will conclude promptly at 9 p.m. in order to watch the nationally televised speech of President Eisenhower from a Republican rally in Baltimore.

Clinic Deferred

The Health Department announced yesterday that the colored child hygiene clinic scheduled Tuesday has been deferred since it falls on election day. It will be held Thursday, November 6, at 9:30 a.m. in the basement of City Hall.

Picnic Kit Service Proves Popular Part Of Rec Plan

Citizens of Cumberland made good use this year of the picnic kit service of the City Recreation Department.

Eugene Mason, recreation director, said the department prepared 121 kits from May through September, and he estimated the recreation kits were used by some 21,825 persons.

Kits are made up by the Recreation Department staff to include the commonly used picnic equipment needed for a picnic attended by about 150 persons.

A normal kit consists of softball equipment, volleyballs and nets,

UNICEF Is Agency Of United Nations

Some Cumberland children collecting donations for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund were rebuffed last night on the basis of alleged Communist connections with UNICEF, a local minister reported.

Rev. H. M. Richardson, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, one of several local churches whose children are "trick-or-treating" for UNICEF, expressed concern that this idea had arisen from an Associated Press item published in yesterday's News.

"It needs to be re-stated," he said, "that UNICEF is a part of the United Nations, in which we are bearing witness to our consideration for all children of the world, without regard to their parents' politics. We are living in the world, and are responsible to the world, not just ourselves."

UNICEF is not a charitable organization, as such. Governments requesting funds from it for any project must bear most of the expense themselves.

UPP-Westvaco Contract Talks Will Resume

Three days of preliminary negotiations for a new labor-management agreement between the United Papermakers and Paperworkers (AFL-CIO) and West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company ended in Washington yesterday.

The UPP locals involved in the contract discussions are Local 676 at Luke, Local 675 at Covington, Va., and Local 677 at Williamsburg, Pa.

The company has a large paper mill at each location.

The three-day session covered 23 non-monetary proposals made by the union and five non-monetary proposals by the company.

Twenty-seven monetary requests made by the union will be considered when negotiations resume in Washington on November 10.

A company spokesman said this week's discussions were exploratory in nature, although tentative agreement was reached on one union proposal concerning the elimination of a portion of the "call-in" clause in the contract.

D. C. Valentine, labor relations coordinator for West Virginia Pulp and Paper, was the chief spokesman for the company, while Harry Scott and Charles Bridgewater, UPP vice presidents, led the union delegations.

Approximately 3,600 employees are represented by the union at the three mills which have bargained as a unit for a number of years.

Pranksters Keep State Police Busy

Halloween pranksters drove officers at the LaVale barracks of the Maryland State Police almost to distraction last night, although the police said most of the complaints received were "run-of-the-mill."

More than 20 complaints were registered at the barracks radio office in less than four hours as "trick or treaters" upset garbage cans, soaped windows of houses and parked automobiles, threw vegetables on porches and against the sides of buildings in the outlying districts.

Meanwhile, city police had little or no action on their complaint log, much of the Halloween partying in the city being confined to small parties, the South End Business Men's Association mummies parade and celebration, and scattered collections for the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

See Dismisses Indictment Of Keyser Doctor

Judge Ernest A. See yesterday afternoon dismissed an indictment against a Keyser physician who was charged with narcotics law violations.

Dr. William A. Flick had been indicted by the Mineral County grand jury earlier this month.

John Pollack, who was also indicted in connection with the narcotics law violations, will be tried by a petit jury in Mineral County Circuit Court on Friday, November 7.

Pollack Arraigned

Yesterday Pollack was arraigned before Judge See and the indictment against him was read by the clerk of the court. There are 22 counts in the indictment.

Through his attorneys, H. Howard Rogers and Reeves Taylor, the accused man entered a plea of not guilty.

Motions to quash the indictments against the two men were argued in court on Wednesday before Judge See, who overruled the motion pertaining to Pollack.

Yesterday afternoon, Judge See sustained a motion by H. G. Shores and Howard P. Shores, attorneys for the doctor, to quash the indictment against their client.

Higher Court To Rule

Judge See is certifying his ruling to the West Virginia Supreme Court in Charleston, one of the attorneys said last night.

The higher court, the attorneys said, will rule on the decision of Judge See, and if they find it in error the case will be placed on the court docket.

If no error is found the case will not be docketed. If docketed, attorneys for the state and defendant will file briefs and arguments will be heard in the court at Charleston.

Board Approves Beauty Shop Site

The Board of Zoning Appeals last night approved an application for a beauty parlor in a residential B area, stipulating only that the owner must not advertise the shop with large signs which could possibly bring about objections to the shop.

Mrs. Mae Smith, 7 Roberts Place, sought to occupy the second floor of 110 Elder Street with the beauty parlor. She told the zoning board she had only a small window sign advertising the shop.

The building is owned by the applicant.

Chamber Asked To Sponsor Civic Projects

11-Point Program Will Be Studied

The Cumberland Chamber of Commerce has been asked to incorporate into its program 11 projects designed to enrich the civic, cultural and industrial life of the Cumberland area.

The suggestions, made at the annual Program of Action dinner of the Chamber, include:

—The erection of better signs and advertisements to mark the main approaches to the Queen City.

—Publicize the rich historical heritage of Cumberland and the surrounding area as a means of attracting more tourists.

—Work for the improvement of U. S. Route 220 as a major North-South highway and have all of U. S. Route 40 included in the National Highway System.

—Establish a long-range program for the beautification of the Cumberland area.

—Urge Civic Pride

—Cooperate to improve public transportation.

—Establish a business-education program in schools and industries of the area.

—Work for a new bridge at Wiley Ford.

—Carry out a program to improve the water supply for future demand.

—Work to eliminate all-day parking on short-term (half hour) meters.

—Raise capital funds to finance plants for new industries in the Cumberland area.

One of the most important things that must be done is to instill community pride in Cumberland citizens, the group attending the program planning meeting said.

Says Interests Same

A number of suggestions for strengthening the internal structure of the Chamber were made by some of the 70 members who attended Wednesday's meeting.

In his keynote address, Chamber President Earl D. Chaney called for cooperation and support of the Chamber's program by all business interests in the area.

"Like a chain that is only as strong as its weakest link, a city is only as strong as its individual citizens."

A Chamber of Commerce, he said, is basically a group of businessmen who band together to work for the betterment of living and business conditions within their own community.

Can't Pass Buck

There is no conflict necessarily involved between the best interests of the community and the personal interests of the men who make up the business group, he said, and quoted:

"What is good for Cumberland is good for the businessmen and vice versa," adding,

"Any businessman, as an individual or as a member of a group, can promote his own personal interests best by active and continuous participation in the program of his Chamber of Commerce. If such a program is either weak or ineffective, he as a businessman, who is or should be a member of that Chamber, must bear the full responsibility. Only if he will make whatever sacrifice is necessary by his participation in the formulation and execution of an aggressive chamber program can we expect that the Chamber will become a strong and widely recognized force for good in our community."

Cites C Of C Record

Robert C. Petersen, manager, pointed out the necessity of improving public relations and establishing the Chamber's position of leadership within the community.

"The important thing," he said, "is that the Chamber fulfill its obligation and position as the center of the network, to plan and create an awareness of what needs to be done and to pull or push as the case may call for until the work is done, either by the Chamber or some other group."

"To instill community cooperation, and as important, community pride is a primary purpose of a Chamber of Commerce."

The record, he said, shows that many things have been accomplished by the Chamber over the years.

Cited were the recreation program, housing developments, smoke control, Potomac River Bridge, Savage River Dam, airport, new water lines, an industrial promotion program, new

Fire Burns 2 Acres Of Woodland

Hunters Are Urged To Be Cautious

Careless hunters were blamed for a forest fire yesterday afternoon which burned over about two acres of private woodland located off the Oldtown-Orleans Road.

William H. Johnson, district forester, who said the fire was under control about an hour after it was detected, pointed out the fire danger is getting worse in the forest areas of the county and district.

About 2 p.m. the blaze was spotted from the fire tower on Town Hill, according to Mr. Johnson, who said the flames were brought under control about 3:15 p.m.

Fire fighting work was under the direction of Floyd Custer, Green Ridge State Forest superintendent, and William Slider, forest guard.

A group of boys from the Green Ridge Boys Camp did the mopping-up work, Mr. Johnson added. Personnel of the forestry department went to work digging a fire line around the area.

The forest areas of the county and district are "getting drier all the time," according to Mr. Johnson, who said the forest floor is becoming drier due to high winds yesterday and Tuesday.

Leaves are falling from the trees rapidly, he added. He is urging hunters to be a little more cautious and careful while in the woods.

CAB To Review Plane Service To Cumberland

The Civil Aeronautics Board notified Mayor J. Edwin Keech this week that it will begin immediately to investigate whether air service temporarily certified here should be renewed.

Three-year certificates issued to 14 local service airlines authorizing service to 95 cities are due to expire between December 6 and February 10.

Cumberland is served by Allegheny Airlines, whose certificates to temporary points will expire February 10.

When air service was authorized, the CAB issued permanent certificates for cities which generated at least five passengers a day. Temporary certificates were issued to a number of cities, including Cumberland, to give the board a chance to re-assess traffic development and permit cities to demonstrate their traffic generating ability.

Early last year, Allegheny asked the CAB to allow it to suspend air service here temporarily. It said the city's five-year traffic average was 1.9 passengers a day and that limitations of the airport's approaches prevent the firm from developing the type or pattern of service required to develop traffic.

The CAB, in denying the carrier's application, said it recognizes there is an operational problem at the Cumberland Municipal Airport which restricts the period of the day during which service can be provided.

But it said it is not clear that the period is so restricted that service cannot be provided, adding:

"On the other hand, there is some indication, as Cumberland alleges, and as Allegheny admits, that the low traffic response at Cumberland is due to the low frequency of schedules provided."

False Alarm At Hotel Answered

Central fire station's 85-foot aerial truck and a pumper answered a false alarm shortly before 9 o'clock last night at the Algonquin Hotel. West Side station also answered the alarm, which came in when someone pulled Box No. 15 at the hotel.

Firemen said the incident will be investigated. They thought the alarm might have been a Halloween prank.

Burke Hospitalized

Edmund S. Burke, 726 Washington Street, president of the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company, who underwent surgery Wednesday, was reported in "fair" condition at Memorial Hospital last night.

New Boy Scout Lodge Plans First Meeting

The newly-organized Order of the Arrow in Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America will hold its first meeting tomorrow at Camp Potomac near Oldtown.

The Order of the Arrow is a national scouting brotherhood which honors campers. In August, Potomac Council elected 25 boys and seven adults to the order.

The meeting will begin at the camp at 9 a. m. with members of the order engaged in a work session at the camp. Those who plan to attend should bring their own lunch, as the noon meal will not be served at the camp.

Beall Honored By Democrats In Baltimore

Businessmen Hear Senator Praised

BALTIMORE (AP)—A predominantly Democratic testimonial luncheon for Republican Sen. J. Glenn Beall brought praise from a colleague Thursday and a charge that Beall had been unjustly accused of bigotry.

The praise came from Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY), who described Beall as active and courageous in the promotion of legislation for civil rights, reciprocal trade, urban renewal and tax relief for small business.

Before Javits delivered his warm, comprehensive testimonial, the bigotry accusation was brought up by C. Morton Goldstein, chairman of the luncheon and head of Maryland's motion picture censors.

Not Anti-Semitic

Goldstein said he felt it necessary to put at rest "vicious rumors" which he said were being circulated by supporters of Beall's opponent for re-election, Democratic Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro of Baltimore.

The luncheon chairman said the rumors were to the effect that Beall "has cast aspersions on his opponent's ancestry and that he is anti-Semitic."

Goldstein called them "untrue, un-American and proof of their (D'Alesandro supporters) desperate, last-minute attempt to employ the big-lie technique."

Was Praised By D'Alesandro

Goldstein said D'Alesandro himself had once publicly introduced Beall as "a great and true friend of the Italian people." He added Beall had been "a strong supporter of Israel."

"No minority in this state need fear J. Glenn Beall," declared Goldstein.

The 350 diners heard Javits endorse Beall as a senator who, with Javits and Maryland's retiring Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin, had been active in "introducing some notes of modernism" into the Republican Party.

"I would have no business being here," said Javits, "were it not for what I know to be a struggle within my own party."

He later told reporters this referred to differences between Republican wings on such issues as foreign aid, reciprocal trade, and federal scholarship aid.

Javits agreed with McKeldin's earlier comment that Beall was effective in marshaling support for legislation by taking colleagues aside and personally explaining his stand to them.

Not Noisy, But Active

"He is not inclined to be a very noisy person, but he is a very active person," said the New York senator, whose current term has two more years. "He does take these fellows aside, and he does talk to them, and they do listen to him."
